Mercy Focused Worship Prayer Points For A Daily Manifestation Of Prosperity The Marathon Worship Prayer Book-----Offering God worship that was focused on his mercy produced victory, ABUNDANCE and PROSPERITY in the lives of the children of Israel. The bible tells us that King Jehoshaphat in 2 Chronicles 20:1 - 25 conquered a whole formidable army of the enemy; they didn't need to fight in the battle; God fought for them and won the victory for them and they were blessed with great spoils because they demonstrated their trust in the mercy of God! As the children of Israel trusted in God's mercy and worship Him because of his mercifulness, the Lord fought and won the battle for them; and blessed them with an abundance of spoils and riches which took them three days in carrying away to their country. God's mercy not only wins battles for you, but it also releases an abundance of divine prosperity into your life; prosperity that so much in abundance that you will not have enough room to contain. The first implication of this spiritual fact is that God's mercy is loaded with so much unlimited power that it can do anything God desires it to do in a person's life. The second implication of this is that we can take advantage of God's mercy in prayer, worship and devotion and through complete trust and heartfelt worship to God; we can activate it to release abundance of divine blessings and prosperity to work on our behalf. By the application of spiritual intelligence, a Christian should trust and hope in the God of all mercies and favours and express this trust in worship to God. It is our trust and hope in the Lord that releases divine mercies and prosperity upon us and upon our path. In other words, God would only give attention to those who trust and hope in His Mercy. When we trust and hope in the mercy of the Lord we become favoured and fruitful; prosperous and successful; blessed and loaded with divine goodness. Trust in the mercy of the Lord ought to be shown and demonstrated. So the question that quickly comes to mind is "How Do I Demonstrate My Trust In The Mercy Of God?" Order your copy of this book and get started "I first started running in the summer of 1978 to win the heart of a girl, but instead, I found God. He chose running to be one of the the places he revealed himself to me. Through my time alone, on my feet, the God of my parents and my grandparents became my God. It was on the road and on the trail that my relationship with God became personal. We developed a friendship which grew bigger than church and became deeper than rules of behavior."--Page 4 of cover. What makes a person undertake a solo and unsupported 3,700 mile run across the United States? For Jeff Grabosky, it begins four years prior to his crossing with a series of tragic events. Jeff prays his way through his darkest days, and the prayers are answered in a remarkable way. Jeff responds to the call on his heart to run across America to encourage people to pray. Jeff prays for thousands of prayer intentions sent to him from all over the world as he averages well over a marathon per day. The story of the transcontinental journey takes you through a wide variety of challenges on the road, in his mind, and in his heart. Planning Each Day With God is a life journal that will guide you through the next 50 days of your life, working toward your goals. Studies have shown that you are more likely to meet a goal if you A. write it down, and B. break it down into smaller goals that you can achieve on a daily basis. This book sets out to guide you, through prayer, to making thoughtful progress toward your goals by setting daily goals in pursuit of a larger goal. One large goal can be intimidating and you may be unsure where to start. The old adage goes "a journey of a thousand miles starts with the first step." This book will help you to make little steps to make that thousand mile journey. By keeping the smaller goals manageable, you do not lose sight of your main goal when you do not see the progress you would like to see. Start each day with a short quote from scripture to pray about and then remind yourself what your major goal is. If your major goal is to run a marathon, you write

(daily!) that your goal is to run a marathon. You then will plot out how you can work toward that goal today. If you've never run before, your first step might be to begin an interval running program to build stamina. If you have run several marathons, your goal may be to improve your marathon time and you would set daily goals to that end. The nice part about it all, is these are goals you are setting. Even if you only make minimal progress toward your goal on a daily basis, all of those little bits will add up over time. We also need to recognize that some days we will make no progress. But by keeping track of those zero-gain days, you will hold yourself accountable. You will recognize that if you want to reach your goal, you will need to make progress. On another day when you feel like you don't want to bother making progress, you can look back at other days when you didn't make progress and that might change your attitude. We also need to celebrate mini victories. Going along with the theme of a marathon, one Victory might be to run a 5k for the first time. If you are the experienced runner, your Victory might be the completion of a smaller training program designed to improve your run time. At the heart of this Goal setting and completing book is the reminder that God is with us and wants the best for us. He will move alongside you when you make the effort to move. You cannot expect to do nothing and get to where you want to be. Though Salvation is given through the death and Resurrection of Jesus, our job is to glorify God in all we do and recognizing Him. By making Him a part of your goals, you will build a closer relationship with Him and meet your goals along the way. Includes a dedication page for you to give this as a gift and personalize it to a person and their goal. Almost everyone has an opinion about what prayer is and how it ought to work. But for many, prayer produces far less than the saints say it should. While some surveys suggest that up to 90 percent of us believe in prayer enough to do it daily, that lofty statistic is tempered by the sobering claim that average believers only pray for eight to twelve minutes a week. If that's not a red warning flag that prayer has a serious public relations problem, what is? Praying When Prayer Doesn't Work is a thoughtful—often witty—account of the author's journey to find prayer's elusive promise for himself. A pastor for thirty years, Jack uses humor, plenty of secondary resources, scripture, real-life stories, and his own unique insights to illustrate how both routine and exceptional circumstances may be used to trigger meaningful, ongoing, and productive prayer. While challenging harmful assumptions (dogma) with unconventional observations, Getz also looks at prayer's four public relations problems, identifies the perfect environment for prayer, and examines the three critical attitudes necessary to pray with great effect. Also, the wisdom and helpful suggestions found in the useful study guide can teach sincere seeker's of the truth how to get personal with God and make praying a choice, not a chore. Covers 30 key aspects of dynamic prayer, such as repentance, passion, journaling, fasting, listening, spiritual warfare, praying with others, and more. In this inspirational "how-to" book, Guideposts executive editor Rick Hamlin shares ten real-life ways of praying to God. He draws on the practical insight he has gained from the everyday men and women in the pages of Guideposts magazine and from his own lifelong journey in prayer. He encourages readers to think of prayer as an ongoing conversation that God; an ongoing conversation that should include everything. He expounds on the power of prayer. He discusses how to find a time and place for prayer every day, the importance of praying in times of crisis, of how to ask for forgiveness, and how to listen to the spiritual nudges God gives us. The 10 prayers are: Conversational prayers Mealtime prayers Prayers for others The Lord's Prayer Forgiveness prayers Crisis prayers Singing prayers Thanksgiving prayers The Jesus prayer "Yes and . . ." prayers (aka possibility prayers) This is a book filled with practical advice, insight, and inspirational stories; a book for anyone who wants to develop a rich and vibrant spiritual practice. "Rick Hamlin, with openness and honesty, breathes fresh air into the subject of prayer." - Debbie Macomber, New York Times bestselling romance novelist "Rick Hamlin cuts through the fog that too often obscures the topic of prayer." - Philip Yancey, author of Where Is God When It Hurts The blind see, the lame walk, the deaf hear. Mighty deliverances are wrought in the precious name of Jesus Christ. Well, that is what the people see. But what is the secret behind all these? Mercy Ayorinde, having been used by God alongside her husband in the ministry of power has in this book introduced us to the divine tool of Spirit led fasting as a necessary ingredient in the operation of God's gifts. This book is designed to combat and defeat spiritual mediocrity and launch today's Christians and ministers into the realm of the miraculous. More books have been written about Jesus than any other historical figure. Many of these books ask and answer questions about Jesus. All That Jesus Asks allows him to do the asking and shows why getting the right answers will change your life. Covering nearly 300 questions recorded in the New Testament under twenty-six separate themes, All That Jesus Asks uncovers who Jesus is by examining what was important to him and what he wants us to believe. This unique and comprehensive look at the greatest figure in history will encourage and challenge readers. Therefore, prepare your heart and devote yourself to this spiritual retreat. Prayer is the master key that opens the door to the blessings of God. It opens the heart, opens possibilities that are impossible by natural means, and opens the door to God's presence. Through a particular and persistent kind of prayer, peace and power flow from God into our lives. The problem is that many people have an experience of prayer that is dull, unimaginative, and lacking power. Their prayer yields few answers and little peace. Jesus's disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray." Hearing Jesus pray, they knew that they needed to learn how to pray on a deeper level in order to see the miracles and transformation of persistent prayer. In the same way, we need to learn the conditions of prayer that prevail so that we can walk in faith, expect answers, and give thanks even before prayer is answered. In Prayer Power: 40 Days of Learning to Pray Like George Müller, author Brent Patrick McDougal invites you to take a forty-day journey to discover that kind of prayer. Each day features a teaching from Scripture and a story from the life of nineteenth-century pastor George Müller, one of the great heroes of our faith. Over a lifetime of ministry, Müller launched multiple orphanages that cared for more than 10,000 children. But not once did he ever ask for donations. Instead, he prayed as each need arose. Prayer Power teaches everyday people of faith how to pray with the faith of George Müller, expecting answers because our good God is waiting to meet and reward those who seek Him. "Uncuffed might be the most important book ever written specifically to help marriages in the law enforcement community. Crafted with tremendous transparency, raw honesty, practical application and a level of grit that could only be possible through their own harrowing experiences, our friends Scott and Leah Silverii have created a masterpiece that will undoubtedly help marriages everywhere. If you are a First Responder or married to one, this book will be a game-changer for your marriage!" -Dave and Ashley Willis, Authors of The Naked Marriage and Hosts of The Naked Marriage Podcast Revival begins with God, but it's lived out through us. James Choung and Ryan Pfeiffer have seen revival in their own ministries, with remarkable transformation in both individuals and communities. They unpack what revival looks like, how Christians can anticipate it, and how they can experience it, providing a model of revival leadership for Christians who want to facilitate and spread revival in their contexts. After five years of continuous prayers for a child, God answered. Zon and Daniella Quewea of Johnson City, Tennessee were about to become parents. But their joy was tempered as Daniella experienced complications such as high blood pressure and preeclampsia. A day after delivering her son John by Caesarean section, Daniella collapsed suddenly from blood clots in her lungs. In this memoir, author Zon Quewea chronicles his wife's brush with death and her struggle to survive during the twenty-three days she spent in the hospital's intensive care unit. Quewea explores the doubts, fears, and perplexities he and his family experienced and illustrates how he found comfort and guidance in the Bible. He tells of this journey where faith and prayer were robustly tested while only a miracle of God could possibly bring relief. Honest and disclosing, 23 Days of Intensive Care: A Story of Miracles is a personal testament to the awesome power of prayer and the miracles of God. Life Is a Marathon Running promotes healthy living. Running marathons is a worldwide phenomenon. More and more people are training for and completing the ultimate running distance, 26.2 miles or 42 kilometers in a day, while they are still standing, alive, coherent, and in need of no medical attention. Running marathons requires careful preparation, planning, and execution. The runner needs a lot of patience and internal mental fortitude to do well. Many principles of running apply to those of living a committed Christian life. In living a Christian life, you need the assurance that Jesus loves you. Christ living in you transforms your life. Living a Christian life requires patience, endurance, and discipline. Both Christians and runners experience highs and lows, as well as expected and unexpected turns of events. Sometimes the road is lonely and wearying, but it ultimately ends in inexpressible joy to those who find themselves at the finish line to receive their reward. However, while running may yield temporal and perishable rewards, living a Christian life brings eternal and everlasting rewards. Life Is a Marathon contains information that may transform your life. Friendship with others is one of God's greatest gifts. Yet how can we understand its power and the blessings that it can bring? In The Journey to Ultimate Friendship, Mike Timmis shares his experiences and the why and how to build relationships with others. Through real-life stories and practical wisdom, you will come to treasure friendships and, most of all, to experience friendship with the Lord—the greatest relationship of all. The greatest athletes in the world today are not the Olympic champions or the stars of professional sports, but the "marathon monks" of Japan's sacred Mount Hiei. Over a seven-year training period, these "running buddhas" figuratively circle the globe on foot. During one incredible 100-day stretch, they cover 52.5 miles daily—twice the length of an Olympic marathon. And the prize they seek to capture is the greatest thing a human being can achieve: enlightenment in the here and now. This book is about these amazing men, the magic mountain on which they train, and the philosophy of Tendai Buddhism, which inspires them in their quest for the supreme. The reader will learn about the monks' death-defying fasts, their vegetarian training diet, their handmade straw running shoes, and feats of endurance such as their ceremonial leap into a waterfall. Illustrated with superb photographs, the book also contains the first full-length study in English of Mount Hiei and Tendai Buddhism. He speaks of the effort, expense, and pain expended for marathons and goes the extra mile to compare that to preparing for the 'final finish line.' Chris Gillespie, Founder & Executive Director of TEAM 413 -

GRACERUNNER Ministries: "Rick Karampatsos loves to run. He loves to train for races. He loves the start of a race. He loves putting one foot in front of the other as he moves through each trial. He loves the exhilaration of finishing a race. However, Rick loves our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, above all else. His story is one that exemplifies the mercy, grace, love, and care of Christ in ALL things. As you read, listen to Rick's heart! You will be blessed by this hero of the faith." Richard Hopkins, President and Founder of ChristianRunners.org: "There is such a parallel between Hebrews 12:1 and Rick's endurance that my heart fills with joy when I read and/or think about it! What a great example to us all in our run as believers, our run in every day life, and of course our run on the course!"
