How many times have you tried to kick the habit only to give into your cravings and light up again? I've been there. While there are many books focusing on helping people quit smoking, few have them were created by people who really know what it's like to be heavily addicted to the smoker's lifestyle.. and it really is a lifestyle, isn't it? We smoke to be social, we smoke after a good meal with friends, we smoke to relax, and we even smoke just for the joy of it all.. whether it's a choice or not doesn't matter, we don't all hate smoking, we all just know how incredibly risky it is to keep on doing it. Yet, how many of those things really work? Our cravings are stronger than most of the aids, and despite how seriously committed you are to quitting, without a solid system in place, you are likely going to continue to shell out money trying every new gimmick to hit the market, only to continue right back where you started.
