Behavioral Finance: The Second Generation Jul 02 2021 Behavioral finance presented in this book is the second-generation of behavioral finance. The first generation, starting in the early 1980s, largely accepted standard finance's notion of people's wants as "rational" wants—restricted to the utilitarian benefits of high returns and low risk. That first generation commonly described people as "irrational"—succumbing to cognitive and emotional errors and misled on their way to their rational wants. The second generation describes people as normal. It begins by acknowledging the full range of people's normal wants and their benefits—utilitarian, expressive, and emotional—distinguishes normal wants from errors, and offers guidance on using shortcuts and avoiding errors on the way to satisfying normal wants. People's normal wants include financial security, nurturing children and families, gaining high social status, and staying true to values. People's normal wants, even more than their cognitive and emotional shortcuts and errors, underlie answers to important questions of finance, including saving and spending, portfolio construction, asset pricing, and market efficiency.

*Opening Credit Nov 25 2020 As a result of prevailing monetary conditions since the global financial crisis, the world has witnessed unprecedented growth in global corporate credit markets. Yet, despite the trillions of dollars put to work in the debt capital markets, corporate credit is still an unfamiliar concept to most investors compared to other asset classes, such as equities and commodities. Every red-top newspaper and 24-hour news service is happy to report the latest twitch in the Dow, FTSE or Stoxx indices but momentous moves in the iBoxx or iTraxx go unmentioned. And whereas many a talking head is happy to pose as an equity analyst, few feel comfortable venturing into the arcana of credit. Yet the corporate credit market, as the authors of this new book show, is both materially larger than its equity peer and has shown more attractive risk/reward characteristics over the last 90-odd years. In Opening Credit, career credit professionals, Justin McGowan and Duncan Sankey, aim to redress this by drawing on their more than 50 years' collective experience in the field to elucidate a practitioner's approach to corporate credit investment. Whilst explaining the basics of traditional credit analysis and affirming its value, McGowan and Sankey also caution against its shortcomings. They demonstrate the need both to penetrate the veil of accounting to get to the economic reality behind the annuals and interim numbers and to analyse the individuals that drive them - the key executives and board members. They employ a range of cogent and easy-to-follow case studies to illustrate the value of their executive- and governance-led approach, which places management front and centre in understanding corporate credit. Opening Credit will appeal to all those seeking a better understanding of corporate credit, including analysts looking to develop their skills, fund managers (especially those with an eye to SRI), bankers, IFAs, financial journalists, academics and students of finance.*

A-Plus Study Notes for Cfa 2010 Level II Certification Oct 25 2020 The A-Plus Study Notes cover the full CFA Curriculum for Study Sessions 1-18. You should work through the CFA curriculum from the beginning of the book, page by page. The learning outcome statements (LOS) have been re-ordered, where necessary, to make learning more intuitive than in the CFA Institute's Program curriculum. The authors' concise writing style minimizes learning time, and they use the same terminology, variables, and equations as those used in the CFA Candidate Readings from which CFA Institute constructs the actual exam. There are numerous Examples to help you master every LOS. The command words are boldface in the LOS title; the examiners expect that your knowledge reflects the command word. After reviewing the LOS, DOWNLOAD and install the Quizzer test engine to solidify what you have learned and to prepare you for rigors of taking and passing the exam. The A-Plus Study Notes Quizzer generates randomized practice exams and simulated exams drawn from a database of 1000+ questions. It offers you four helpful testing formats: 1) Adaptive Exams generates 44-55 questions in 1-hour sessions to help you identify your strengths and weaknesses in each exam category. You save hours by then focusing your available study time on bringing your weakest knowledge areas up to a passing level. We recommend that you start by taking three adaptive exams, which include questions from all exam categories and different levels of difficulty. Our software keeps track of how you perform and develops a Historical Analysis, which visually shows you exactly how you are scoring in each exam category. When you reach a passing Level II in a particular topic or LOS, then you can allocate your study time to those areas you need to strengthen. 2) Study Sessions help strengthen your weakest knowledge areas by generating up to 250 questions per exam category until you can answer each correctly. We go beyond simple answers by giving you thorough explanations that are linked to a page number reference to the relevant CFA Institute assigned reading and to specific chapters in an accompanying eBook study manual. We help you develop a complete understanding of why an answer is correct. We also help you solve all of the questions pertaining to mathematical formulas by walking you through them step by step. 3) Simulated Exams are timed 6-hour exams with a 1.5-hour break and comprised of 240 questions about all of the exam categories-just like the real CFA exam. As you finish each automatically ending exam, the software displays for comparison your score in each category and the passing score required by CFA. You may review each question that you answered incorrectly, display the correct answer, identify a learning resource, link to the accompanying eBook for further explanation. Note: You can limit your time to 3 hours if you wish and get a Mock Exam of 120 questions. 4) Flash Card Drills present questions to answer mentally *and then allow you to click F4 to display the correct answer. You can also create your own portable flash card questions by printing directly from the test engine software. The A-Plus Study Notes were created by a team of CFA's that includes an American wealth management advisor who passed all three CFA exam levels on the first try and a British financial analyst who has developed online CFA training programs and teaches CFA courses. The Team Leader Jane Vessey, CFA, manages a training company in the UK specializing in financial analysis and investment. She also teaches a CFA revision course at ISMA (the business school at Reading University) and is an associate at a leading London financial training company where she teaches courses covering investment management and related topics. Undiversified Apr 30 2021 Diversification is a core principle of investing. Yet money managers have not applied it to their own ranks. Only around 10 percent of portfolio managers—the people most directly responsible for investing your money—are female, and the numbers are even worse at the ownership level. What are the causes of this underrepresentation, and what are its consequences—including for firms' and clients' bottom lines? In Undiversified, experienced practitioners Ellen Carr and Katrina Dudley examine the lack of women in investment management and propose solutions to improve the imbalance. They explore the barriers that subtly but effectively discourage women from entering and staying in the industry at each point in the pipeline. At the entry level, the lack of visible role models discourages students from considering the field, and those who do embark on an investment management career face many obstacles to retention and promotion. Carr and Dudley highlight the importance of informal knowledge about how to navigate career tracks, without which women are left at a disadvantage in an industry that lionizes confidence. They showcase a diverse constellation of successful female portfolio managers to demystify the profession. Drawing on wide-ranging research, interviews with prospective, current, and former industry practitioners, and the authors' own experiences, Undiversified makes a compelling case that increasing the number of women could help transform active investment management at a time when it is under threat from passive strategies and technological innovation.
