But for many young creative workers, aspiring artists, and intellectuals, grad school poses an existential fork in the road. An MFA or a humanities PHD can give you time to study something you love among people with similar interests, but it can also uproot you geographically and saddle you with debt. Given the current job market, is grad school really worth it- financially, professionally, and emotionally? In this book, a wide range of intellectuals and creative types share their stories about going to grad school or avoiding it, and what that decision has meant in their lives. They provide an inside look at what graduate programs are really like and share the wisdom they wish they had going in.

-- Publisher description Connect, Second Edition, is a fun, four-level, multi-skills American English course especially written and designed for young adolescents. The comprehensive, interleaved Teacher's Edition 3 provides step-by-step instructions to present, practice, and review all new language for Student's Book 3. It also features the audio scripts, optional exercises, and informative notes. This workbook contains 100 subtraction facts worksheets. Each worksheet has 35 exercises. The first 20 worksheets focus on a single number's subtraction facts, which is good for beginning students. Worksheets 21-30 have the facts 1-10 mixed. Worksheets 31-50 have the facts 2-10 mixed (the 0's and 1's are now removed). Worksheets 51-100 are like worksheets 1-50 except that the numbers 11-20 are included. Each worksheet has designated room at the top for students to write their names and for teachers or parents to record the score and time. All of the exercises are numbered for easy reference. All of the answers are tabulated in the back of the book, also with numbers so that teachers or parents can easily check the solutions. The exercises are written with a size 14 font. The copyright notice allows teachers and parents who purchase this book to reproduce selected worksheets for their own students and children.
