The Model Rules of Professional Conduct provides an up-to-date resource for information on legal ethics. Federal, state and local courts in all jurisdictions look to the Rules for guidance in solving lawyer malpractice cases, disciplinary actions, disqualification issues, sanctions questions and much more. In this volume, black-letter Rules of Professional Conduct are followed by numbered Comments that explain each Rule's purpose and provide suggestions for its practical application. The Rules will help you identify proper conduct in a variety of given situations, review those instances where discretionary action is possible, and define the nature of the relationship between you and your clients, colleagues and the courts. This is a compilation of two excellent books about the 4th Marine Division: History of the 4th Marine Division - 1943-2000 and The 4th Marine Division in World War II. It communicates the proud lineage and tradition of the "Fighting Fourth" Marine Division. The history of the "Fighting Fourth" Marine Division is a very proud and distinguished one. Its honors and lineage are a narrative to the dedication and sacrifice of Marines and Sailors that, woven together, chronicles this most distinguished combat division of the United States Marine Corps. This second edition closes the gap in the written history of the division and updates the landmark work begun by my predecessor Brigadier General Frederick Lopez. Its story begins with the division's activation for war in 1943, looks at the Reserve issues in the 1950 s and 1960's, follows the reactivation and organization for war after Vietnam and combat in Southwest Asia. This work ends in 2000 with the 4th Marine Division, a proud and powerful contributor to the Total Force and a critical link in America's warfighting capability for the 21st century. Excerpt from State Taxation of National Banks, Vol. 1: Hearing Before the Committee on Banking and Currency of the House of Representatives on H. R. 9579, a Bill to Amend Section 5219 of the Revised Statutes of the United States; Thursday, January 26, 1922, and Friday, January 27, 1922

Section 1: Under this section provision is made that all shares of stock in all banks in the Commonwealth shall be assessed to the owner of said shares in the city the bank is located, whether the owner is a resident or not, and are assessed at their fair cash value on April 1 after deducting the proportionate part of the value of the real estate belonging to the bank, at the same rate as other moneyed capital in the hands of citizens is by law assessed, namely at the city rate of taxation, which in 1920 would be per thousand dollars 0 assessed valuation.

Section 2: This provides that the bank shall pay the tax assessed to the city collector when other taxes in the city are due.

Section 3: This provides that the shares shall be subject to the tax paid thereon by the bank, and the bank shall have a lien on the shares.

Section 4: This provides that the cashier of every bank shall deliver to the assessors on or before April 10 in each year a statement on oath showing the name of each shareholder, with his residence and the number of shares belonging to him on April 1 last, and upon receiving such list the assessors shall forthwith deliver a copy to the 'commissioner of taxation, and immediately upon determining the tax rate for the year give the commissioner of taxation written notice thereof and the amount assessed upon the shares of the bank.

Section 5 provides that the commissioner of taxation shall inform the assessors in the city the amount of money credited to it on account of the tax assessed on said shares of stock.

Section 6 provides for the payment to the city by the State treasurer of such amount as may be credited to it on account of such tax.

Section 7 provides that 1 per cent of the amount assessed and collected by each city shall be allowed to it for the expense of assessment and collection of nonresident tax.

This authoritative edition of the complete texts of the Federalist Papers, the Articles of Confederation, the U.S. Constitution, and the Amendments to the U.S. Constitution features supporting essays in which leading scholars provide historical context and analysis. An introduction by Ian Shapiro offers an overview of the publication of the Federalist Papers and their importance. In three additional essays, John Dunn explores the composition of the Federalist Papers and the conflicting agendas of its authors; Eileen Hunt Botting explains how early advocates of women's rights, most prominently Mercy Otis Warren, Judith Sargent Murray, and Charles Brockden Brown, responded to the Federalist-Antifederalist debates; and Donald Horowitz discusses the Federalist Papers from the perspective of recent experiments with democracy and constitution-making around the world. These essays both illuminate the original texts and encourage active engagement with them. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1884 edition. Excerpt: ...and able argument, that said charter provisions, as well as the ordinance, are in violation of sections 1, 3, 4, 6, 7 and 11 of article 10 of the constitution on revenue and taxation. The sections are as follows: Section 1. The taxing power may be exercised by the general assembly for State purposes, and by counties and other municipal corporations, under authority granted to them by the general assembly, for county and other purposes. Section 3. Taxes may be levied and collected for public purposes only. They shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects Within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and all taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws. Section 4. All property subject to taxation shall be taxed in proportion to its value. Section 6 provides that certain property therein specified shall be exempt from taxation, and section 7 provides that all laws exempting property from taxation other than the property specified in section 6, shall be void. So much of section 11 as is relied on to sustain the point made by plaintiffs, is as follows: "Taxes for county, city, town and school purposes, may be levied on all subjects and objects of taxation. For city-and town purposes the annual rate on property in cities and towns having 30,000 inhabitants, or more, shall not, in the aggregate, exceed one hundred cents on the $100 valuation. Said restrictions, as to rates, shall apply to taxes of every kind and description, whether general or special, except taxes to pay valid indebtedness now existing or bonds which may be issued in renewal of such indebtedness." If, as contended for by plaintiffs' counsel, that the "taxes" and "taxation" referred to in the above...
