Ibn 'Ata' Allah, Muslim Sufi Saint and Gift of Heaven Mar 27 2021 The Shadhiliyya Sufi Order gave the Muslim world, and those that are interested in Sufism, the inside workings of the great masters Abu'l Hassan al-Shadhili and Abu l-'Abbas al-Mursi. Ibn 'Ata' Allah, also a master of the Shadhiliyya Order, is the author of many volumes. His works occupy a unique position within the history of Sufism and have been read consistently since their composition. Yet, despite their enduring popularity, to date there has been no systematic and through analysis of his worldview. This book is the first study to highlight the constant interconnections between Ibn 'Ata' Allah's works. It uses a scaffold approach to develop an understanding of Ibn 'Ata' Allah's Sufism and his commitment to Islam, building from his metaphysics of Oneness (tawhid) and covering domains such as ontology, epistemology, eschatology, and ethics. While the bulk of this work covers the worldview of Ibn 'Ata' Allah, it begins more generally with some comments on the need for reappraising approaches to Sufism and its relation to Islam. Accessible for anyone interested in Sufism, this work will appeal to scholars of religion in general and Islam in particular.

A Gift for Baghdad Sep 13 2022 A Gift for Baghdad is the English translation of Tuhfa-e-Baghdad, which was written in Arabic by the Promised Messiah(as) in 1893. It is a reply to an announcement and letter written in Arabic by As-Sayyid ‘Abdur Razzaq al-Qadiri of Baghdad (residing in Hyderabad, India at the time) maligning the Promised Messiah(as) and accusing him of disbelief (God forbid). In A Gift for Baghdad, the Promised Messiah(as) dispels the misunderstandings and misconceptions held by al-Qadiri and advises him not to hastily accept the allegations of the ulama without proper and thorough investigation. The Promised Messiah(as) cordially invites him to Qadian to learn the truth first-hand, but in the event he is unable to embark upon this journey, he should perform the Istikharah Prayer and inform the Promised Messiah(as) so that he may simultaneously pray for him as his brother in faith. In doing so, the Promised Messiah illustrates a practical example of how Muslim brethren should resolve their differences and disputes while remaining united in the bonds of love for each other. Surely Allah Loves the Repenters Dec 04 2021 Surely Allah Loves The Repenters Muslim Notebook Birthday Gift, 120 pages Simple and elegant Notebook on a Matte-finish cover, Perfect Journal, Diary, Gift Idea for parents, gradparents, kids, boys, girls, youth and teens. A Gift for the Queen Feb 18 2023 The Diamond Jubilee of Her Majesty Queen Victoria was celebrated with great pomp and show in June 1897 throughout British India. Since the purpose of the advent of the Promised Messiah(as) was to propagate the Unity of God and His message, he found a way to serve those objectives at that occasion. He published the booklet Tohfa-e-Qaisariyyah on May 25, 1897. In addition to felicitating Her Majesty, the Promised Messiah(as) made the following points with great subtlety and wisdom: 1. Truthfulness of the Holy Prophet Muhammad(sa). 2. Truthfulness of Islam and its teachings that can bring about international peace. 3. A proposal for Her Majesty to organise a conference of great religions. 4. A strong plea for Her Majesty to clear Hazrat Isa(as) (Jesus) of the accusation of having been cursed. 5. An undertaking to show a sign of his own truthfulness, provided that Her Majesty would agree to accept his message in case of fulfilment – adding that he would accept death penalty if he is unable to show a convincing sign.

Allah's Gifts May 21 2023 Allah's Gifts is an engaging and uplifting story for children.The purpose of this book is to teach children Islamic morals and appreciation of non materialistic gifts of the world. Children will be able to discover and appreciate the many gifts that Allah (God) has given us in the world today from little things such as the ability to see, hear and talk. Some people in this world do not have the benefits that many of us have and this book teaches good morals to nurture Islamic values within our children. Gifts are often associated with materialistic things so there is an emphasis here on spiritual blessings to redress the balance for children. Allah's Gifts explores the many benefits we are given in this world in an engaging way.

A Gift for Nikah Jan 17 2023 Description Alhamdulillah?h, this book which is in your hands ‘A Gift for Nik?h’ by our dear and respected Shaykh Abdul Raheem Limbada (Hafizahull?h) is an invaluable addition to the Muslim bookshelf on the topic of marriage. It is equally beneficial for those seeking to get married, those already married, and those who have children of marriageable age. The book comprehensively and systematically covers the various issues surrounding marriage; from the virtues of marriage, advice on selecting a suitable spouse, to marriage itself and maintaining a healthy marriage once married. May All?h SWT reward his efforts and the efforts of all those who have assisted him in any way, and may He make this book a means of helping Muslims to uphold healthy Islamic marriages, Ameen. Mufti Muhammad ibn Adam al-Kawthari [D?mat Barak?tuhum]

A Gift for An-Nadwah Nov 22 2020 "How can a false claimant of Prophethood be likened to me? I have been supported by numerous miracles. My success is from God and is a fulfillment of His promises. It is not within the control of any human being." To this simple message is "A Gift For An-Nadwah" dedicated. In this short and incisive tract, Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad(as) responds to the contention made by Hafiz Muhammad Yusuf that even false claimants of Prophethood can establish successful missions. Through the use of this critique Muhammad Yusuf hoped to undermine the success of the Promised Messiah(as). With strong, reasoned arguments Hadrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad(as) deconstructs this thesis and exposes its inherent flaws and defects. He argues that false prophets can never succeed and that to hold such beliefs is a direct contradiction of the teachings of Islam. Instead, the triumph of God's Messengers is a miracle and a Divine sign in support of their truth. The principle audience of this work were the ulema of An-Nadwah who were called on by Hafiz Muhammad Yusuf to judge the merits of these contending claims.
