This journal, which is completed by mother and son, makes a great gift for your son or for a mom! The answers recorded will live on in time and make a wonderful keepsake for mother and son in years to come. PERFECT GIFT for mom and son - This 6" X 9" journal is the perfect opportunity to take turns recording an answer to the questions listed in the book. By answering the questions and prompts included in this journal, a mother and son can leave a lasting legacy recorded in their own handwriting. This journal serves to provide both thought-provoking and easy and fun questions that feel safe to open up the lines of communication between a mother and her son. Don't feel obligated to answer all the questions at once. Take your time and enjoy the journey. This journal makes a great Christmas, birthday, Valentine's, or Mother's Day gift! GUIDED QUESTIONS - This mother and son journal allows both to get to know one another better, especially at a time when a boy may not be as open and conversational with his mom. Best suited for ages 12 - 17 years old. For example, here's a small sample of fun and/or thought-provoking questions included in this journal: Son, what is the hardest thing about being a kid? Mom, what was the hardest thing about being a kid? Son, if you could have one superpower, what would it be? Mom, if you could have one superpower, what would it be? Son, are you excited or fearful about going to college or university? Son, what hurts your feelings? Mom, what hurts your feelings?

PERSONALIZED AND INTERACTIVE - The lined pages provide you with room to write your answers to the guided questions. There are also a few pages near the back of the book that you can personalize with your own questions. If you want, you can even paste a few photos in the book, or add whatever you want. The handsome cover comes in a glossy finish.

HIGH-QUALITY - There are 120 pages (60 sheets) in this journal. The pages are made with high-quality white paper that provides good absorbency so you can feel confident using pens or gel pens without bleed-through. Make the decision for mom and son to record their answers in a way that allows them to connect in a safe and fun way. And you think your mom is too involved? Meet the mother of all mothers in this “hilarious” memoir (North Shore News). Adam Chester is the son of a very loving mom, who for almost thirty years has peppered his life with unsolicited advice, news updates, and opinions in the form of thousands of inappropriate, embarrassing, and utterly crazy letters. Here, he presents a selection of her correspondence showing the pathological extremes maternal instincts can take. Why is a grown woman so frantic that her adult son screw on his windows to keep out killer bees? Is Adam at imminent risk of frostbite should he ever decide to visit San Francisco? And are adult trick-or-treaters really that much of a threat? With time, perspective, and plenty of therapy, Adam acknowledges and accepts the comedy of it all—and in this book he shares his story of an unforgettable mom who gives “overprotective” a whole new meaning. A mother and child share so much together—countless milestones, simple joys, unexpected challenges, and all the little surprising moments in between. This five-year journal will help you capture it all—simply turn to today's date and take a few moments to answer the question at the top of the page. As the journal fills, it will become a loving record and cherished family keepsake. This light-hearted and engaging journal will bring Mom and teen son closer together through painless (promise!) easy, fun questions! An equal mix of fun and thoughtful questions for mom and teen to answer. No essays or long answers required! Questions are all fill-in-the-blank, checklists or multiple choice. All are engaging, quick and easy. Do you think you know your teen son? Questions include: Does your son believe in Karma? Love at first sight? What skills will help him in a Zombie apocalypse? What world problem would he solve if he was in charge for the day? Can you predict what qualities he hopes for in his future career? What is he most worried about right now? What things do you say annoy him the most? Take turns answering questions, or just pick up and read aloud and answer and discuss. Teen-tested...this journal is guaranteed to create discussion, have a little fun and do a bit of bonding. This light-hearted journal is a painless way for a teen son to share his thoughts with his mom. Makes a great gift for Mom. Also perfect for a long car ride, vacations or even while at the dinner table. With the same brilliant combination of humor and warmth she brought to bestseller Bird by Bird, Anne Lamott gives us a smart, funny, and comforting chronicle of single motherhood. It's not like she's the only woman to ever have a baby. At thirty-five. On her own. But Anne Lamott makes it all fresh in her now-classic account of how she and her son and numerous friends and neighbors and some strangers survived and thrived in that all important first year. From finding out that her baby is a boy (and getting used to the idea) to finding out that her best friend and greatest supporter Pam will die of cancer (and not getting used to that idea), with a generous amount of wit and faith (but very little piousness), Lamott narrates the great and small events that make up a woman's life. "Lamott has a conversational style that perfectly conveys her friendly, self-deprecating humor." -- Los Angeles Times Book Review "Lamott is a wonderfully lithe writer Anyone who has ever had a hard time facing a perfectly ordinary day will identify." -- Chicago Tribune A People Book of the Week & a Kirkus Best Nonfiction of the Year An exquisite and inspiring memoir about one mother's unimaginable choice in the face of oppression and abuse in Taliban-controlled Afghanistan. In the days before Homeira Qaderi gave birth to her son, Siawash, the road to the hospital in Kabul would often be barricaded because of the frequent suicide explosions. With the city and the military on edge, it was not uncommon for an armed soldier to point his gun at the pregnant woman's bulging stomach, terrified that she was hiding a bomb. Frightened and in pain, she was once forced to make her way on foot. Propelled by the love she held for her soon-to-be-born child, Homeira walked through blood and wreckage to reach the hospital doors. But the joy of her beautiful son's birth was soon overshadowed by other dangers that would threaten her life. No ordinary Afghan woman, Homeira refused to cower under the strictures of a misogynistic social order. Defying the law, she risked her freedom to teach children reading and writing and fought for women's rights in her theocratic and patriarchal society. Devastating in its power, Dancing in the Mosque is a mother's searing letter to a son she was forced to leave behind. In telling her story—and that of Afghan women—Homeira challenges you to reconsider the meaning of motherhood, sacrifice, and survival. Her story asks you to consider the lengths you would go to protect yourself, your family, and your dignity. On Sale Now $6.95 (Regular Price $12.95) The BEST gift for Mom this Mother's Day! This wonderful book is the perfect way to treat the special woman in your life in a simple and thoughtful way! It's time to give mom (or grandma) the best gift yet. Order now! This journal deepens the mother/son bond while creating a keepsake for when conversation is no longer possible. With journaling questions for Mom such as: "What have you learned from heartbreak?" "Is there a book you hope I'll read?" "When you're gone, what is something you'll want me to remember you saying?" These questions will transport you from the daily routine into a time when the ordinary has been rendered sacred. Whether you're a parent looking to leave a legacy to your child, or a child recording memories of your parent, make time for the questions you'll later wish you asked: your future self will thank you. Commonly asked: who is this journal for? The journal provides over 100 questions for a mother to answer for her son. It makes a perfect baby shower gift for a new mother of a baby boy, keepsake gift for an aging mother or son, and thoughtful present for mothers and sons of all stages in between. Some children sit with their parents and fill out the journal while asking the questions: this invites thoughtful conversations, generational connection, and intimacy. Others choose to purchase the journal for themselves, fill it out, and later present it as a gift to their children. This journal can be an especially thoughtful gift for a mother who has lost her own mother; the "motherless" mother often deeply recognizes the importance of recording thoughts and memories for her children. Krys Malcolm Belc's visual memoir-in-essays explores how the experience of gestational parenthood—conceiving, birthing, and breastfeeding his son Samson—eventually clarified his gender identity. Krys Malcolm Belc has thought a lot about the interplay between parenthood and gender. As a nonbinary, transmasculine parent, giving birth to his son Samson clarified his gender identity. And yet, when his partner, Anna, adopted Samson, the legal documents listed Belc as “the natural mother of the child.” By considering how the experiences contained under the umbrella of “motherhood” don’t fully align with Belc’s own experience, The Natural Mother of the Child journeys both toward and through common perceptions of what it means to have a body and how that body can influence the perception of a family. With this visual memoir in essays, Belc has created a new kind of life record, one that engages directly with the documentation often thought to constitute a record of one’s life—childhood photos, birth certificates—and addresses his deep ambivalence about the “before” and “after” so prevalent in trans stories, which feels apart from his own experience. The Natural Mother of the Child is the story of a person moving past societal expectations to take control of his own narrative, with prose that delights in the intimate dailiness of family life and explores how much we can ever really know when we enter into parenting. An epic account of one remarkable woman's quest for justice from the New York Times bestselling author of The Widow of the South and A Separate Country. In the years following the Civil War, Mariah Reddick, former slave to Carrie McGavock--the "Widow of the South"--has quietly built a new life for herself as a midwife to the women of Franklin, Tennessee. But when her ambitious, politically minded grown son, Theopolis, is murdered, Mariah--no stranger to loss--finds her world once more breaking apart. How could this happen? Who wanted him dead? Mariah's journey to uncover the truth leads her to unexpected people--including George Tole, a recent arrival to town, fleeing a difficult past of his own--and forces her to confront the truths of her own past. Brimming with the vivid prose and historical research that has won Robert Hicks recognition as a "master storyteller" (San Francisco Chronicle)./DIV Would you like to know what your daughter might say if she was prompted to write about:- "One of My Funniest Memories in Life..."- "What I Hope My Future Husband is Like..."- "My Favorite Homemade Meals Are..."- "Three Things That I Know Are True..."- "Today I Feel Like Telling You About..."- "Some of My Life Dreams..."- "A Scripture That Gives Me Strength..."- "Some of the Best Advice I Have Ever Been Given..."- "15 Things I Want to Do With You" - A Bucket List- "I Feel Close to God When..."This mother/daughter journal has over 100 writing prompts to help you use writing, doodling, and drawing to strengthen your relationship and create a lasting treasure together. Boys, in general, have a hard time opening up about the little details of their lives. Can you imagine what it would be like to really connect with them? It would be amazing to get more than a one-word response and go beyond 'yes' or 'no' answers, hear what's really in their heart and what they are proud of or struggling with, and feel, deep in your core, that you are preparing your boys for the challenges they will face as men. The Mother and Son Journal was designed to make those wants a reality for you and your boys. This journal will help to increase the bond between a mother and son as they pass the journal back and forth answering a variety of fun questions that go beyond yes or no answers. Your son will love hearing what your favorite thing about him is or how you handled a difficult situation when you were his age. And I guarantee he has questions that he would like answered, but doesn't know how to ask. Our sons grow up very quickly and are out the door before we are ready. This Mother and Son Journal will be a treasure to you both as you look back at your answers long after the book is complete. As the years go by, you may find that your sons have moved beyond the answers of fine or good and your bond will be something that you treasure and hold dear for the rest of your lives. NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • A moving memoir about the legendary author's relationship with her own mother. Emma Watson's Our Shared Shelf Book Club Pick! The story of Maya Angelou's extraordinary life has been chronicled in her multiple bestselling autobiographies. But now, at last, the legendary author shares the deepest personal story of her life: her relationship with her mother. For the first time, Angelou reveals the triumphs and struggles of being the daughter of Vivian Baxter, an indomitable spirit whose petite size belied her larger-than-life presence—a presence absent during much of Angelou's early life. When her marriage began to crumble, Vivian famously sent three-year-old Maya and her older brother away from their California home to live with their grandmother in Stamps, Arkansas. The subsequent feelings of abandonment stayed with Angelou for years, but their reunion, a decade later, began a story that has never before been told. In Mom & Me & Mom, Angelou dramatizes her years reconciling with the mother she preferred to simply call "Lady," revealing the profound moments that shifted the balance of love and respect between them. Delving into one of her life's most rich, rewarding, and fraught relationships, Mom & Me & Mom explores the healing and love that evolved between the two women over the course of their lives, the love that fostered Maya Angelou's rise from immeasurable depths to reach impossible heights. Praise for Mom & Me & Mom "Mom & Me & Mom is delivered with Angelou's trademark good humor and fierce optimism. If any resentments linger between these lines, if lives are partially revealed without all the bitter details exposed, well, that is part of Angelou's forgiving design. As an account of reconciliation, this little book is just revealing enough, and pretty irresistible."—The Washington Post "Moving . . . a remarkable portrait of two courageous souls."—People "[The] latest, and most potent, of her serial autobiographies . . . [a] tough-minded, tenderhearted addition to Angelou's spectacular canon."—Elle "Mesmerizing . . . Angelou has a way with words that can still dazzle us, and with her mother as a subject, Angelou has a near-perfect muse and mystery woman."—Essence A beautiful journal filled with thought-provoking prompts for mothers to answer in addictive list form. Journal measures 6-1/4" wide x 8-1/4" high. This heartfelt, deeply personal memoir explores how a celebrated filmmaker and activist and his conservative Mormon mother built bridges across today's great divides—and how our stories hold the power to heal. Dustin Lance Black wrote the Oscar-winning screenplay for Milk and helped overturn California's anti-gay marriage Proposition 8, but as an LGBTQ activist he has unlikely origins—a conservative Mormon household outside San Antonio, Texas. His mother, Anne, was raised in rural Louisiana and contracted polio when she was two years old. She endured brutal surgeries, as well as braces and crutches for life, and was told that she would never have children or a family. Willfully defying expectations, she found salvation in an unlikely faith, raised three rough-and-rowdy boys, and escaped the abuse and violence of two questionably devised Mormon marriages before finding love and an improbable career in the U.S. civil service. By the time Lance came out to his mother at age twenty-one, he was a blue-state young man studying the arts instead of going on his Mormon mission. She derided his sexuality as a sinful choice and was terrified for his future. It may seem like theirs was a house destined to be divided, and at times it was. This story shines light on what it took to remain a family despite such division—a journey that stretched from the steps of the U.S. Supreme Court to the woodsheds of East Texas. In the end, the rifts that have split a nation couldn't end this relationship that defined and inspired their remarkable lives. Mama's Boy is their story. It's a story of the noble quest for a plane higher than politics—a story of family, foundations, turmoil, tragedy, elation, and love. It is a story needed now more than ever.
