Inspiring Souls of Awadh brings to you the journeys of twelve eminent people who belong to the State of Uttar Pradesh and represent the glory of Awadh in all its splendour, keeping the culture and heritage intact. They may or may not have been born in this soil like me but have given all they have to this place through their works. The book not just outlines biographies of people who have lived for over hundred years but also the budding talents who are socially active, giving so much to the city in every way. They are a result of Awadhi culture, the 'Ganga Jamuni Tehzeeb' and now they are passing it forward to the generation next. A place is not just defined by its monuments, but also by its people, their work and the culture. We are a product of our culture and our traditions and we must take it forward through our works. Giving back to the society and community we live, is very important apart from fulfilling one's dreams and desires. These twelve Gems and Jewels of Awadh whom I call the 'Inspiring Souls' are one of their kind, excelling in their field of work and spreading love and happiness around. They are not just committed to their work, family and friends but also to their culture and tradition and most importantly give their best in working for the all round development of the state. It's the only book, unique, one of its kind featuring biographies of people from the state of Uttar Pradesh. Biography of Ghanshyam Das Birla, 1849-1983, Indian industrialist. The Fictional Scene In England, Immediately

After The Second World War, Makes An Interesting Reading. Many Critical Studies Have, In Great Depth, Investigated The Historical Processes To Highlight The Various Directions The Novelists Moved In Then. At The Same Time, There Was A Concurrent And A Deliberate Attempt On The Part Of These Novelists To Discard The Heritage Of Modernism. Iris Murdoch, Who Is One Of The Most Prominent Novelists Of This Period, Also Shared The Distrust Of Her Contemporaries For The So-Called Literary Radicalism. However, She Remains Distinct As A Writer Among Her Contemporaries, In Her Awareness Of The Problems Of The Novel And Language, In Her Adherence, Both To The Idealism About Human Potentiality And Perfectibility That Liberal Humanism Had Contained. But She Is Also Conscious Of The Limited Individual Capacity To Reach That Ideal. Her Creative Career Is Marked By Her Desire To Bring Back To The Novel, Some Of Its Earlier Comprehensive Vision Of Life, Society And Human Character. The Present Book Attempts To Reveal Those Important Areas Of Murdoch S Thought Which Set Her Apart From Other Novelists Writing At That Time. Her Search For Literary Metaphors Which Aim At Restoring To Novel Some Of Its Lost Moorings Is A Significant, Almost Iconoclastic Effort. Taking Help From Her Non-Fictional Treatises, An Attempt Has Been Made In This Book To Highlight The Platonic Burden Of Her Literary And Aesthetic Creed. There are various myths prevailing in society about I.A.S./ I. P. S. officers. The people think that it is a very cushy job with a lot of privileges. The author served in the Police Department for 37 ½ years and saw the working of the department very closely. As such he has written the current book “Memoirs of an I.P.S. Officers”. The first myth that he has tried to dismantle is that you need not be from a higher class to get into the I.P.S. The author came from an ordinary middle-class family, but it was with his determination that he got into I.P.S. in his first attempt. The second myth that the author has tried to dismantle is that reading in a good English Medium School is a must. The author read only for 2 years in an English Medium School. All the rest were in Hindi Medium ordinary schools. But that was no deterrent to his achievements in his life. In his book “Memoirs of an I.P.S. officer” the author has tried to touch upon various types of problems that are faced by the Police throughout the country. Political murders are one. The political parties do not even bat an eyelid while eliminating their political rivals. Then there are mafia dons in every big & small city. They take protection money from the citizens to enable them to run their business. This malaise is prevalent in almost all the big and small cities to some extent. Then there is the trouble of Communal tension. The author has mentioned in detail communal trouble at Daspara which happened during his tenure as S.P. West Dinajpur. The author has tried to touch each aspect of Police functioning in a very simple and lucid manner. The book should make a happy reading for all the Civil Services aspirants. It would be equally helpful to those in service in the Police Department. Apart from this, others would also get to know a detailed view of the Police after going through this book. Asia’s diversity in culture, ethnicity, religions, ideology, environment, history, economy and systems of governance is without parallel. Consequently, conflict is endemic. Going hand in hand with conflict is multi-faceted competition. At one level, it is for resources: the emerging economies of the

Asia Pacific, South and South East Asia compete for energy and mineral resources with developed countries, including USA, Europe, Japan and South Korea. Economic growth and continued development of Asia as a whole are contingent upon security and stability, without which precious resources will inevitably be expended in conflict. The continent's lynchpin is South East Asia, connecting the Indian and the Pacific Oceans and linking the Middle East and South Asia with the Asia Pacific and Australia. Given the proven limitations of the UNSC in handling various situations, there is a pressing need for a regional infrastructure to deal with security matters, including both traditional and non-traditional threats. It is for the nations whose interests are most affected to work together to build a comprehensive Pan Asian security mechanism, dispelling the apprehensions of the continent's inhabitants and creating the capability to handle their own affairs. This book aims to bring out the need for a holistic, overarching Indo-Pacific security system and generate ideas on how it should be developed. Has your life ever been a proverbial bed of roses? Have you had a father who always took care of all the family's needs? Have you had the leisure of never having to think about the future until post-graduation? Did reality wake you up? This biography of H. L. Dutt is one such journey. After his father's untimely death, Dutt's mother told him that as the eldest son it was his duty to look after the family—his sister, four brothers and mother. For the first time, he faced reality, wept tears and began to plan the future. Income had dried up and they had to make do with his father's gratuity and some savings. Life was stark, life was real and ominous. This is the making of a teacher, and discovering his love for teaching by a chance encounter at a lecturer's job and realizing his love for the open life, natural history, dramatics, oration, and in short all aspects of school life as it should be. He would go on to become the head of famed institutions in the nation, Mayo College, Colvin Taluqdars'

College, Daly College and Hyderabad Public School, loved and respected by peers and students alike. His thoughts on education will interest people with some novelty. The book is about the author's experiences, somewhat haphazard but true and sincere. Wing Commander Suhas M Shukla, had been a valued colleague in the Indian Public Schools' Conference. He worked with distinction as Principal of some reputed Sainik Schools. He also headed a Security Management Institute. Thus, he has hands on experience in education, security and management, which he has dealt with ably. The need to make our schools more safe and secure is felt urgently after the unfortunate incident in a reputed school in the Delhi NCR. Wing Commander Shukla's comprehensive and exhaustive book 'Safe and Secure Schools' could not have been more timely; it satisfies the urgently felt need of schools today. --Dr. M.V.Prasad, Former Principal, Daly College, Indore & Past Chairman, IPSC On private schools in India. It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity.... These immortal lines of Charles Dickens perhaps aptly describe everything Yuva Bharat reflects. In an uncanny reflection of the times we are living in while this book is being released, it talks about what the world needs to read right now. For these are the times of COVID-19. These are the times when 'normal' has been redefined. Author Devir traces the journey of 69 young men and women who defined their own 'new normal'. He talks about people whose worlds collapsed way before COVID-19 had hit us and who emerged victorious against undefinable odds-people of sheer grit who did not need legs to win races; people who vested their faith in the unseen; or people who rose from the ashes like the proverbial phoenix. Some of the remarkable stories include the struggles, learnings and indomitable passions of Rajkummar Rao, Kiren Rijiju, Aditi Rao Hydari, Remo D'souza, Abhinav Bindra and Chitrangada

Singh, among many others, who each went on to excel in their own craft. Yuva Bharat encompasses these tales of overcoming all odds and achieving success eventually. A compelling narrative, it takes us through life journeys and inspires us to get up in this instant and take charge of our lives. A straight shot of adrenaline, Devir gives us our carpe diem moment!
