Final Report on the Validation of Physical Maintenance Standards for State Traffic Officer Sep 04 2021 In 1979, the Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol (CHP) requested that a joint study be conducted by the CHP and the California State Personnel Board (SPB) to develop a series of tests which assess whether a State Traffic Officer has the physical abilities necessary for field job readiness. To provide the broadest possible base, task lists developed by four major studies were utilized. These studies were: 1. The 1975 Women Traffic Officer Project (WTOP) designed to determine the feasibility of hiring women as state traffic officers and which identified 18 physically demanding tasks; 2. The 1978 Physical Demand Survey (PDS) designed to determine the frequency and duration of tasks performed by state traffic officers which identified 25 physically demanding tasks; 3. The SPB 1978 Job Analysis to support medical standards in which 11 physically demanding tasks were identified, and 4) The Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training's 1978 California "Entry-Level Law Enforcement Job Analysis" which determined the physical demands placed on peace officers in general and identified 23 physically demanding tasks. Thus a total of 77 physically demanding tasks were identified in these four studies.

State Troopers of America Jul 22 2020 "The purpose of this book is to acquaint you with badges, hat emblems, and shoulder insignia of the front line state law enforcement officers of America today, our state troopers. It will also give you some insight into the badges and insignia of the departments, and the difficult and expensive, yet interesting hobby of collection the memorabilia of the state troopers"--

Handbook of State Police, Highway Patrols, and Investigative Agencies Dec 19 2022 Torres has followed his Handbook of Federal Police and Investigative Agencies with this similarly focused book on state police organizations. He begins with an extensive essay that traces law enforcement history and concentrates on state-level organization and methods. This introduction is followed by a systematic directory of state police agencies. Organizational structure, historical development, and employment requirements for each agency have been compiled from widely diverse sources. Both this directory and Torres' earlier book are unique information sources. Choice This book remedies the problem of lack of information on state law enforcement organizations. It provides specific information on the backgrounds of state police, highway patrols, and investigative agencies, and describes organization structure, primary duties, jurisdiction, and educational and training qualifications of sworn personnel. Information is provided both on the larger and better known agencies such as the California Highway Patrol and the New York State Police, and on smaller agencies like the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation and the Wyoming Division of Criminal Investigation.

Cow County Chip Apr 23 2023 T.R. Shannon joined the San Jose California Highway Patrol in July 1966, and transferred to the San Andreas Area CHP office two years later, where he stayed for the next twenty-one years. During that time, he drove about 750,000 miles on state highways and county roads, patrolling the most varied climate and terrain in California. Through hot summers, freezing winters, in the mountains, and in the grasslands, he thought fast, navigated ethical quandaries, and believed in and always strived to enforce the law without fear or favor. In this collection of 128 short stories, he looks back at high-speed pursuits, heart-breaking traffic accidents, physical confrontations, unsolved murders, and other events from the routine to the unbelievable. Some of the people he arrested and some of the people he saw die he shed no tears for, but others like the first person he arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol, earned his sympathy. An officer's job involves much more than writing tickets, investigating sometimes minor but too often tragic traffic accidents, and helping disabled motorists although all those things are critical parts of the job highlighted in Cow County Chip.

Highway Patrol Locations Then and Now Nov 18 2022 From October 3, 1955, through 1959, a total of 4 seasons and 156 episodes aired in syndication. A ZIV Television Production, Highway Patrol, starring Broderick Crawford, was a success and continues to air to this day. The show was filmed as realistically as possible, which included the support of the California Highway Patrol for the first part of the first season. To create as much realism as possible, the show filmed on actual locations throughout Southern California. Most of the shows were filmed in 2 days, a few in 3. One day was spent at the studio filming interiors and/or using the studio "backlot", what there was of it. The other day (or two) were spent out in the field. In the 156 episodes, there were around 600 locations used. This book shows most of those locations, utilizing then images from the show and now shots taken by the author. Many of the locations have not changed or have changed very little. Other sites have changed greatly. This book shows those changes. This book also takes the reader on a time trip back to the late 1950s, to a much simpler time in life.
