Strategic Investment Funds Jul 27 2023 Strategic investment funds (SIFs) have gained prominence over the past two decades as governments and other public sponsors globally have increasingly co-opted the investment fund model to further policy objectives. Since 2000, more than 30 SIFs have been formed at the national level, typically to boost economic growth through infrastructure or small and medium enterprise investment. In the current COVID-19 pandemic environment, governments have frequently turned to sovereign investment vehicles to address the economic effects of the pandemic, echoing the emergence of new SIFs in the aftermath of the global financial crisis. However, SIFs are not devoid of challenges, and the setup and operation of such funds can be fraught with risks, particularly in contexts of weaker governance, inadequate rule of law, and limited financial market regulation. The intent of 'Strategic Investment Funds: Establishment and Operations' is to provide guidance to practitioners and policy makers considering a SIF model where little widely available, practice-based experience has been documented and disseminated. The book provides a reference for policy makers who are creating or strengthening the operations of SIFs, particularly as governments examine the value of such funds as a policy instrument in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Das Anlageuniversum indirekter Immobilienanlagen aus Sicht eines deutschen institutionellen Investors May 21 2020 Bachelorarbeit aus dem Jahr 2011 im Fachbereich BWL - Investition und Finanzierung, Note: 1,7, FOM Hochschule für Oekonomie & Management gemeinnützige GmbH, München früher Fachhochschule, Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: In den letzten Jahren hat die Bedeutung der indirekten Immobilienanlage in Deutschland zugenommen. Das Anlageuniversum ist größer geworden und das Verständnis die Immobilie als eigene Assetklasse zu begreifen ist gewachsen. Von besonderer Bedeutung ist die indirekte Immobilienanlage dabei für institutionelle Investoren. In dieser Arbeit wird das Anlageuniversum indirekter Immobilienanlagen aus der Sicht eines institutionellen deutschen Investors dargestellt. Hierbei wird zunächst der Kreis der institutionellen Anleger in Deutschland und deren Immobilienanlage behandelt. Im Anschluss gliedert sich die Arbeit in zwei Teilbereiche. Im ersten Teil werden dabei die verschiedenen Formen der indirekten Immobilienanlage aus Sicht eines deutschen institutionellen Investors vorgestellt. Hierbei werden sowohl offene Immobilienfonds, in der Form des Publikums- und des Spezialfonds, als auch geschlossene Immobilienfonds behandelt. Weiter werden börsennotierte Produkte, wie sogenannte Immobilienaktien und im speziellen REITs, dargestellt. Als Produktspezialität werden sogenannte Immobilien-Dachfonds behandelt. Ebenso behandelt werden Immobilienanleihen, im speziellen der Hypothekenspfandbrief sowie Mortgage Backed Securities. Abschließend wird der noch relativ junge Markt für Immobilienderivate vorgestellt. Im zweiten Teil der Arbeit werden die verschiedenen Formen der indirekten Immobilienanlage sowie konkurrierende Assetklassen quantitativ hinsichtlich ihrer historischen Performance, ihrer Volatilität und auf Korrelationen untersucht. Hier erfolgt die Konzentration auf transparente Produkte, wie offene Immobilienfonds und börsennotierte Vehikel. Zum Schluss der Arbeit wird ein abschließendes Fazit gezogen und ein Ausblick gegeben. Die Arbeit soll einen Beitrag dazu leisten, das gesamte Spektrum an indirekten Immobilienanlagen besser zu verstehen. Dabei soll die Arbeit die Unterschiede in der Ausgestaltung der Produkte aufzeigen und durch die Darstellung ihres Rendite-Risiko-Profiles mögliche Anhaltspunkte geben, welches Produkt sich unter welchen Präferenzen am besten eignet, wenn ein Investor ein indirektes Immobilieninvestment vornehmen möchte.

Actualités de droit fiscal – Anno 2013 Oct 26 2020 Les actualités en droit fiscal, thème du présent ouvrage, se déclinent en cinq contributions, sélectionnées en fonction de leur actualité législative ou jurisprudentielle. La fiscalité de l'épargne s'est considérablement durcie : depuis le 1er janvier 2013, les intérêts et dividendes recueillis par les habitants du Royaume sont, en principe, taxés au taux uniforme de 25%. Dans ce contexte, Denis-Emmanuel Philippe met en lumière l'intérêt des habitants du Royaume à recourir à certains véhicules sociétaires afin d'alléger la pression fiscale sur les revenus de leur patrimoine mobilier. Frédéric Janssen, André Bailleux et Rafael Alvarez Campa font ensuite le point sur la procédure spéciale de régularisation fiscale, qui a été profondément modifiée par la loi du 11 juillet 2013. Marc Bourgeois, Jordan Oprenyesz et Nathalie Pirotte font, quant à eux, le point sur la matière du recouvrement fiscal. Ils analysent trois thématiques particulièrement bouillonnantes en pratique : la délégation du pouvoir de viser et de rendre exécutoire la contrainte en matière de T.V.A. ; le recouvrement fiscal auprès de « tiers » dans le domaine des impôts sur les revenus ; la répartition des compétences juridictionnelles entre le juge fiscal et le juge des saisies en matière de recouvrement d'impôts. Est-il encore intéressant fiscalement aujourd'hui, pour les avocats, d'exercer en société ? Jean-Michel Degée et Xavier Pace passent au peigne fin les axes principaux du nouveau dispositif. Enfin, on sait qu'à partir du 1er janvier 2014, les avocats deviendront des assujettis ordinaires à la T.V.A. Jean Bublout s'attèle à décrire les enjeux et les conséquences concrètes de ce nouveau statut, après en avoir expliqué les fondements juridiques et politiques.

The Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive Dec 20 2022 Apart from MiFID, the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (AIFMD) may be the most important European asset management regulation of the early twenty-first century. In this in-depth analytical and critical discussion of the content and system of the directive, thirty-eight contributing authors – academics, lawyers, consultants, fund supervisors, and fund industry experts – examine the AIFMD from every angle. They cover structure, regulatory history, scope, appointment and authorization of the manager, the requirements for depositaries and prime brokers, rules on delegation, reporting requirements, transitional provisions, and the objectives stipulated in the recitals and other official documents. The challenging implications and contexts they examine include the following: – connection with systemic risk and the financial crisis; - nexus with insurance for negligent conduct; - connection with corporate governance doctrine; - risk management; - transparency; - the cross-border dimension; - liability for lost assets; - impact on alternative investment strategies, and - the nexus with the European Regulation on Long-Term Investment Funds (ELTIFR). Nine country reports, representing most of Europe's financial centres and fund markets add a national perspective to the discussion of the European regulation. These chapters deal with the potential interactions among the AIFMD and the relevant laws and regulations of Austria, France, Germany, Italy, Luxembourg, Liechtenstein, The Netherlands, Malta and the United Kingdom. The second edition of the book continues to deliver not only the much-needed discussion of the inconsistencies and difficulties when applying the directive, but also provides guidance and potential solutions to the problems it raises. The second edition considers all new developments in the field of alternative investment funds, their managers, depositaries, and prime brokers, including, but not limited to, statements by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) and national competent authorities on the interpretation of the AIFMD, as well as new European regulation, in particular the PRIIPS Regulation, the ELTIF Regulation, the Regulation on European Venture Capital Funds (EuVeCaR), the Regulation on European Social Entrepreneurship Funds (EUSEFR), MiFID II, and UCITS V. The book will be warmly welcomed by investors and their counsel, fund managers, depositaries, asset managers, administrators, as well as regulators and academics in the field.

Alternative Investments Jul 15 2022 Whether you are a seasoned professional looking to explore new areas within the alternative investment arena or a new industry participant seeking to establish a solid understanding of alternative investments, Alternative Investments: An Allocator's Approach, Fourth Edition (CAIA Level II curriculum official text) is the best way to achieve these goals. The careful and informed use of alternative investments in a diversified portfolio can reduce risk, lower volatility, and improve returns over the long-term, enhancing investors' ability to meet their investment outcomes. Alternative Investments: An Allocator's Approach (CAIA Level II curriculum official text) is a key resource that can be used to improve the sophistication of asset owners and those who work with them. This text comprises the curriculum, when combined with supplemental materials available at caia.org, for the CAIA Level II exam. Luxembourg Mar 11 2022 This Technical Note discusses the findings and recommendations made in the 2017 Financial Sector Assessment Program for Luxembourg in areas of regulation, supervision, and systemic risk monitoring of fund management. beyond the current activities. The Luxembourg framework for liquidity management tools compares favorably with its peers at both the EU and international level. Information on leverage of funds is of potential relevance from a systemic risk perspective. The Luxembourg authorities have also been actively monitoring and contributing to discussions on the EU money market funds regulation.

L'utilisation par les résidents belges des structures sociétaires luxembourgeoises Sep 24 2020 L'ouvrage traite de l'intérêt fiscal, pour les résidents belges, de l'utilisation de trois véhicules sociétaires luxembourgeois : la société de gestion de patrimoine familial (SPF), le fonds d'investissement spécialisé (SICAV-SIF) et la société de participation financière (SOPARFI). La SPF, la SICAV-SIF et la SOPARFI sont des instruments juridiques souples et innovants, présentant des atouts fiscaux indéniables pour les résidents belges. L'ouvrage ne se limite pas au régime fiscal luxembourgeois de ces véhicules. Il traite également de nombreuses questions fiscales belges, présentant un intérêt pratique fondamental : le rapatriement des revenus aux résidents belges, les moyens de défense dont dispose le fisc belge pour combattre l'utilisation de structures luxembourgeoises (particulièrement l'article 344, §§ 1 et 2, du CIR), la nouvelle obligation de déclaration (et le projet de taxation par transparence) des structures patrimoniales privées, l'extension de la taxe sur l'épargne aux fonds d'investissement sans passeport européen, l'obligation de déclarer des paiements substantiels par des sociétés belges vers le Luxembourg, l'échange d'informations par les autorités fiscales luxembourgeoises au fisc belge, etc. La dernière partie de l'ouvrage étudiera les incidences fiscales luxembourgeoises et belges de dix structures de planification fiscale, entre autres : • la cession, par un habitant du Royaume, d'une société familiale à une SOPARFI (structure de plus-value interne) ; • le transfert du domicile fiscal d'un particulier belge vers le Grand-Duché du Luxembourg ; • l'acquisition par une SOPARFI d'un portefeuille-titres financé par endettement ; • la conversion d'une SPF en SOPARFI (et vice-versa) ; • le transfert de siège d'une filiale offshore d'une société belge vers le Luxembourg ; • la souscription par une SOPARFI d'un instrument hybride émis par une société belge ; • le financement de l'acquisition d'entreprises (belges) à travers une double structure holding (SOPARFI – holding belge).

Renewable Energy Sources Jul 03 2021 In recent years African countries have taken great strides in their response to the demand for reliable contractual and institutional forms of doing business and for high-quality dispute resolution mechanisms. Modern international arbitration has taken root, with certain countries actively embracing modern harmonized arbitral practice, and others in the process of change and development. This unprecedented volume assembles for the first time a country-by-country analysis – both practical and insightful – of how arbitration is conducted in 46 African countries, providing essential information about legislative provisions, treaty adherence, and arbitral procedure. Contributors include current and former judges, distinguished practitioners, academics, and institution-builders, all of whom are active in promoting the use of arbitration as a viable means of dispute resolution in Africa. Five sections representing the main regions of the continent, each with a substantive introductory chapter covering the major trends within that region, offer country overviews addressing issues such as the following: ; adherence to the key arbitration conventions; the modernity of a State's arbitration legislation and its compatibility with the UNCITRAL Model Law; particular features of arbitral practice in that jurisdiction; access to and (where available) statistics from local and regional arbitral institutions; significant arbitration-related national case law; and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards. A sixth section focuses on Africa-based investor-State arbitration, providing an empirical analysis of the experience and record of African States with investment treaties and investor-State arbitration. Useful tables of intra-African bilateral investment treaties, a list of ICSID proceedings involving African States, and other tabular features round out the volume. The book will be welcomed by arbitration practitioners and legal academics everywhere as the essential guiding light in what is rapidly becoming a crucially important area of international arbitration practice.

Alternative Lending Jan 29 2021 The book covers alternative lending using the emergence of Debt Funds in the EU as a case study. The book explores the risks that they can pose to financial stability, and the regulatory and supervisory tools available to mitigate these risks. Through this analysis, the book uncovers the risks and potential risk mitigation tools that can be applied to the alternative lenders—including debt funds and other potential alternative lenders. After identifying the reasons behind the growth of alternative lenders (using as example the assets of Alternative Investment Funds (AIFs) and in particular debt funds) and the simultaneous decrease of the banks' assets, the book analyses the systemic importance of the alternative lenders and the risk channels through which the systemic risk can spread to the banking sector and the financial system. Then, the book deals with the financial innovation-market failure theory and demonstrates that financial innovations (e.g. debt funds, securitisations) can cause market failures, resulting in regulatory interventions. Of interest to banking and financial regulation academics, researchers, and practitioners this book analyses the regulatory provisions in place for both credit institutions and debt funds, including the Basel Accords, the Capital Requirements Directives and Regulations, and the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (AIFMD) and its implementation in various EU jurisdictions, before offering a proposal for a new three-defensive framework applicable to debt funds and to other potential alternative lenders.

A practical guide to UCITS funds and their risk management Feb 27 2021 A must-have book about investments ! UCITS funds today represent a major share of European funds. The European directives started with UCITS I in the mids 1980s, and have been amended up to UCITS IV in 2009, to be followed soon by a UCITS V package. In its first part, this book is summarizing the evolution and features of these successive sets of European regulations. Among others, it covers the UCITS eligible assets, the key parties involved in UCITS funds operations, their reporting and information requirements, taxation and many other useful related subjects, to give a short but useful understanding of the UCITS world. Beside the UCITS IV directive is entering into the risk management field, which is materialized by the issue of a key document entitled Risk Measurement and the Calculation of Global Exposure and Counterparty Risk for UCITS (the famous ref. 10-788 Guidelines of the Committee of the European Securities Regulators "CESR"). The Guidelines require some technical skills: the second part of this book reproduces the CESR's Guidelines, punctuated with comments and prerequisites of quantitative finance, to help for a better understanding of the content and significance of this UCITS IV objective. This book will give you the best keys to invest, avoiding many financial risks.

The Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive Jun 26 2023 In the ten years since its coming into force, the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (AIFMD), with almost EUR 7 trillion assets under management in its remit, has become an important piece of European regulation complementing the Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities (UCITS) and the Markets in Financial Instruments (MiFI) frameworks. This third edition of the most comprehensive and in-depth analysis of the AIFMD and its related European investment fund legislation (including the European Venture Capital Fund Regulation, the European Social Entrepreneurship Fund Regulation, the European Long-Term Investment Fund Regulation and the European Money Market Fund Regulation among others) brings together fund industry experts, fund supervisors, consultants, lawyers and academics to discuss the content and system of the directive from every angle, including its relation not only to the UCITS and MiFI frameworks but also to pension funds, the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation, the Securitization Regulation and the Cross Border Funds Distribution Directive and Regulation, as well as related pieces of tax regulation at the European level. Further, the third edition emphasizes the function of such factors in the financial services value chain as the following: the AIFMD's approach to robo-advisors; digital asset funds; infrastructure investments in the context of real estate and sustainable investments; risk management; transparency; and impact on alternative investment strategies. Five country reports, focusing on the European Union's five most important financial centres for alternative investment funds, deal with the potential interactions among the AIFMD and the relevant laws and regulations of France, Germany, Luxembourg, Ireland and The Netherlands. This thoroughly updated edition elaborates on potential difficulties encountered when applying the directive and provides potential solutions to the problems it raises. The book is sure to be warmly welcomed by fund lawyers and consultants, investors and their counsels, fund managers, depositaries, asset managers and administrators, as well as regulators and academics in the field.

Value Investing in Asia Jan 21 2023 A practical, step-by-step guide to value investing in Asian stocks Value Investing in Asia offers a uniquely targeted guide to investors seeking new opportunities in Asian markets. This book shows you what you need to know, and how to invest intelligently in Asian companies. Step-by-step approach guides investors towards the practical application of value investing principles in Asia Navigate the challenges unique to Asian investing Examine real-life case studies that illustrate both risk and opportunity Delve into the key markets in Greater China and South-East Asia Includes exclusive interviews with well-known value investors in Asia Despite the challenges and risks, Asian markets represent significant opportunity — especially for investors seeking value. Leveraging Financial Markets for Development Feb 22 2023 This book investigates how development institutions created and promoted marketized development financial instruments to increase the speed and scope of assistance by leveraging private financial markets for development objectives. To attract private investors, donor governments agreed to bear the risk in these new instruments in order to mobilize investment during times of political crisis. In particular, this book contends that Germany's KfW played an outsized role in the development of these new financial instruments, particularly in microfinance banks and structured funds, as KfW's unique institutional attributes and strong political support from the German government at critical junctures fostered financial innovation. Using over 70 interviews and a cache of newly released archival materials, this book documents how KfW and other development institutions created and promoted these marketized development financial instruments, and how they have become a pillar of modern development policy.

Real Estate Investment Trusts In Europe May 01 2021 It is well known that investments in real estate provide relatively stable yields compared with stock market volatility, so it is not surprising that, with globalisation, investors have pursued such opportunities across borders, especially where foreign countries offer beneficial tax regimes. Nor it is surprising that states should fear erosion of their tax base in the presence of such investments. This groundbreaking book — the first in-depth comparative analysis of taxation of real estate investment trusts (REITs) in different European Union (EU) Member States — investigates the impact of EU law on direct taxation in the case of REITs, and whether EU policies in this area have led national legislators to adjust their REIT regimes. Presenting detailed case studies of three EU Member States — France (a well-established REIT regime), Bulgaria (a new accession state) and Spain (a recent REIT regime) — this book explores the idea of a harmonised EU REIT, and whether harmonisation among national REIT regimes may be possible. Among the issues and topics arising in the course of the presentation are the following: — 'goodness of fit' and adaptational soft pressure; — relevant case law from the European Court of Justice, including both tax and company law; — 'REIT shopping'; — noncompliance of REIT regimes with EU law; and — criteria for the 'misfit' analysis of REIT regimes and potential infringements of EU law. The analysis ultimately documents conditions and circumstances for the creation of a harmonised 'Euro-REIT' by assessing the level of change on the area of direct taxation within the Member States which would be needed for such a creation to become reality, identifying common themes across different legal systems that could assist the harmonisation of laws. Throughout, a holistic view is taken, linking tax and company law with considerations of sovereignty, policy and culture. In its structured framework comparing REIT regimes, this incomparable study takes a giant step towards overcoming resistance to a common REIT taxation regime in the EU. As the first comparative study of REIT regimes to identify an emerging common understanding informed by European jurisprudence and Europeanisation policy and theory, it is sure to be welcomed by practitioners, academics and policymakers in European law and international taxation as well as European studies.

FEMIP Trust Fund Annual Report 2017: Serving the Southern Neighbourhood Nov 19 2022 The FEMIP Trust Fund (FTF) aims to address investment gaps by directing resources to operations in priority sectors, which can be enhanced through the provision of technical assistance or made financially viable via risk capital. The priority sectors include: access to credit for SMEs and mid-caps; infrastructure, including projects in the transport, energy and water sectors; environment, including support to projects combating the causes and effects of climate change; human capital, research & development (R&D), and innovation. Mobilising EUR 66.4m of donor resources since 2004, the FTF has financed 77 grant operations in the Middle Eastern and North African (MENA) countries, leading to EUR 630m of EIB blended operations that support total investment of EUR 1.35bn. Thanks to the continuous support of 16 EU Member States and the European Commission, in 2017 the FTF approved EUR 9.9m of grant operations, the largest in any given year to date. The FTF has been a key player in the partnership between the EU and Mediterranean partner countries, as part of the process of encouraging political and economic renewal in the Southern Neighbourhood region.

Multilingual Interpretation of European Union Law Dec 08 2021 The Alternative Investment Fund Managers Directive (AIFMD) may be the most important European asset management regulation of the early 21st century. However, a preponderance of practitioners and academics in the field argue that, in its present form, the directive is seriously out of touch with both the system of European financial law and industry practice. In this first in-depth analytical and critical discussion of the content and system of the directive, thirty-four contributing authors – academics, lawyers, consultants, fund supervisors, and fund industry experts – examine the AIFMD from every angle. They cover structure, regulatory history, scope, appointment and authorization of the manager, rules on delegation, reporting requirements, transitional provisions, and the objectives stipulated in the recitals and other official documents. The challenging implications and contexts they examine include the following: connection with systemic risk and the financial crisis; impact on money laundering and financial crime; nexus with insurance for negligent conduct; connection with corporate governance doctrine; risk management; transparency; the cross-border dimension; liability for lost assets; and impact on alternative investment strategies. Ten country reports add a national perspective to the discussion of the European regulation. These chapters deal with the potential interactions among the AIFMD and the relevant laws and regulations of Italy, Switzerland, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Austria, Liechtenstein, the United Kingdom, Germany, France, and Ireland. The former are Europe's most vibrant financial centres and markets. Designed to spur a critical attitude towards the emerging new European financial markets framework presaged by the AIFMD, this much-needed discussion not only elaborates on the inconsistencies and difficulties sure to be encountered when applying the directive, but also provides potential solutions to the problems it raises. The book will be warmly welcomed by investors and their counsel, fund managers, depositaries, asset managers, and administrators, as well as academics in the field.

Investment Fund Taxation Feb 10 2022 The effect of the significant changes in tax law at domestic, European, and international levels on investment funds, an important part of global financial services, creates a complex environment for practitioners and a source of debate for academics and policymakers. This is the first book to provide a comprehensive legal and practical analysis of the changes to the complex multilevel tax and regulatory framework concerning different types of investment funds. The contributions, updated as of late 2017, were originally presented at a conference held at the University of Luxembourg in November 2016 under the auspices of the ATOZ Chair for European and International Taxation. The book covers the central questions arising in national law and tax policy, explores the regulatory and tax framework of the European Union (EU), and discusses the multifaceted interactions of both national and EU law with bilateral tax treaties. Through fourteen chapters following a brief introduction, leading academic experts and practising specialists provide decisive insight into: – the regulatory regime for European investment funds; – the tax law and reforms in both Luxembourg and Germany; – the role of the European Commission's State-aid practices; – examples of case law concerning the application of non-discrimination rules to various investment vehicles; – the impact of tax-specific EU legislation, such as the Parent-Subsidiary Directive, the Tax Merger Directive, and the Anti-Tax Avoidance Directive; – the availability of tax treaty protection for different collective and non-collective investment funds; – the impact of base erosion and profit shifting (BEPS) developments on the taxation of cross-border investments; – the value-added tax (VAT) treatment of investment funds and their managers; and – the consequences of the global drive towards automatic exchange of information relating to existing cross-border investment structures. With its particular focus on Luxembourg – the leading centre for investment funds in Europe (and second only to the United States globally) and, thus, an instructive model for domestic-level investment fund regulation and taxation – this volume reveals the common issues that arise in virtually every other jurisdiction with a sizeable fund industry. As the first in-depth treatment of the globally significant nexus between investment funds and taxation, the book will prove valuable to policymakers, practitioners, and academics in both financial services and tax law.

Taxation of Income from Domestic and Cross-border Collective Investment Apr 24 2023 The Fund Reporting Cloud® has made tax reporting less complex, but comparing the effective tax treatment of investment funds and their investors in an international environment is still an ambitious task. Against this background, this study examines the tax consequences at fund, asset, and investor level. In geographical terms our comparison covers eleven European countries, the USA, and Japan. Our analysis of the relevant tax provisions, which is of a primarily qualitative nature, is complemented by a quantitative comparison of the tax burden for a model investor investing assets nationally in the form of a collective investment. It will be of interest both for investors seeking tax advantages and for governments to check whether there is a need for tax reforms. It also ties in perfectly with the current evaluations at OECD level in the context of TRACE.
