Venetian music print culture of the mid-sixteenth century is presented here through a study of the Scotto press, one of the foremost dynastic music publishers of the Renaissance. For over a century, the house of Scotto played a pivotal role in the international book trade, publishing in a variety of fields including philosophy, medicine, religion, and music. This book examines the mercantile activities of the firm through both a historical study, which illuminates the wide world of the Venetian music printing industry, and a catalog, which details the music editions brought out by the firm during its most productive period. A valuable reference work, this book not only enhances our understanding of the socioeconomic and cultural history of Renaissance Venice, it also helps to preserve our knowledge of a vast musical repertory. "Mark Musa, in editing and translating Petrarch's Canzoniere, has performed a wonderful service to the English-speaking reader. Here, in one volume, are included the poet's own selection of the best lyric verse he wrote throughout his life, accompanied by brief but useful notes..." —Chronicles "As well as skillful and fluent verse renderings of the 366 lyrics that make up this milestone in the development of Western poetic tradition, Musa offers copious and up-to-date annotation to each poem... along with a substantial, sensitive, and intelligent introduction that is genuinely helpful for the first-time reader and thought provoking for Petrarch scholars and other medievalists." —Choice The 366 poems of Petrarch's Canzoniere represent one of the most influential works in Western literature. Varied in form, style, and subject matter, these "scattered rhymes" contains metaphors and conceits that have been absorbed into the literature and language of love. In this bilingual edition, Mark Musa provides verse translations, annotations, and an introduction co-authored with Barbara Manfredi. The series Studies on Modern Orient provides an overview of religious, political and social phenomena in modern and contemporary Muslim societies. The volumes do not only take into account Near and Middle Eastern countries, but also explore Islam and Muslim culture in other regions of the world, for example, in Europe and the US. The series Studies on Modern Orient was founded in 2010 by Klaus Schwarz Verlag. Gaspara Stampa (1523?-1554) is one of the finest female poets ever to write in Italian. Although she was lauded for her singing during her lifetime, her success and critical reputation as a poet emerged only after her verse was republished in the early eighteenth century. Her poetry runs the gamut of human emotion, ranging from ecstasy over a consummated love affair to despair at its end. While these tormented works and their multiple male addressees have led to speculation that Stampa may have been one of Venice's famous courtesans, they can also be read as a rebuttal of typical assumptions about women's roles. Championed by Rainer Maria Rilke, among others, she has more recently been celebrated by feminist scholars for her distinctive and original voice and her challenge to convention. The first complete translation of Stampa into English, this volume collects all of her passionate and lyrical verse. It is also the first modern critical edition of her poems, and in restoring the original sequence of the 1554 text, it allows readers the opportunity to encounter Stampa as she intended. Jane Tylus renders Stampa's verse in precise and graceful English translations, allowing a new generation of students and scholars of poetry, Renaissance literature, and music history to rediscover this incipiently modern Italian poet. This edited volume is the first to propose new readings of Italian and transnational female-authored texts through the lens of Trauma Studies. Illuminating a space that has so far been left in the shadows, Trauma Narratives in Italian and Transnational Women's Writing provides new insights into how the trope of trauma shapes the narrative, temporal and linguistic dimension of these works. The various contributions delineate a landscape of female-authored Italian and transnational trauma narratives and their complex textual negotiation of suffering and pathos, from the twentieth century to the present day. These zones of trauma engender a new aesthetics and a new reading of history and cultural memory as an articulation of female creativity and resistance against a dominant cultural and social order. Journeys Exposed: Women's Writing, Photography, and Mobility examines contemporary literature written by women that are all in different ways related to Italy. It argues that photography provides women with a means to expose aspects of their nomadic self and of the others' mobile lives within and beyond the writing process. By resorting to the visual, women individualistically respond to forms of hegemonic power, fragmentation, displacement, loss and marginality, and make these experiences key to their creative production. Enjoy the passion and power of 145 arias from 50 operas by Verdi, Puccini, Mozart, Donizetti, Bellini, 12 other composers. Selections from Rigoletto, The Marriage of Figaro, Il Trovatore, Madama Butterfly, Tosca, La Bohème, many more. Original Italian librettos with excellent line-for-line literal English translations in facing columns. Introduction. Francesco Petrarca (1304-74) has been described as the 'first modern man of letters' and his influence on the European lyric tradition has been widespread. The poems of his Canzoniere, closely associated as they are with the enigmatic figure of Laura, were soon to become the models for love-poetry in nearly all major European literatures in the Renaissance. The new translations here use the same rhyme schemes and broadly the same metres as those used by Petrarch himself. The facing English texts are thus not intended to be absolutely literal, but to reflect the inner meanings and moods of the originals, with some further literal translations of difficult passages added in the notes. The notes to the poems also cover their likely dates, mythological allusions, certain background settings, and a number of other calendrical and structural features which appear to emerge from the actual sequencing of the collection itself. There is also a section on old Italian syntax and other linguistic aids. The new translation of Petrarch's Rerum Vulgarium Fragmenta is in two separate volumes. Esordio letterario dell'autore che raccoglie in questo piccolo volume le sue più istintive ispirazioni giovanili... Quando Elena Bas si sveglia un martedì mattina nel suo appartamento di Barcellona. Non può immaginare che il suo quarantesimo compleanno diventerà un viaggio nel suo passato. Prima che l'orologio indichi le nove del mattino, Elena ritroverà sentimenti che pensava di aver dimenticato, amori lontani, persone che, in un modo o nell'altro, le hanno cambiato la vita. A quarant'anni, Elena si può considerare la somma di tutte le Elena che era stata una volta, ma era anche l'Elena di Quim, Edward, Gibel e Manel. Quattro persone, quattro storie, quattro momenti di una vita... Se avessi la possibilità di guardare il tuo passato faccia a faccia, cosa le diresti? Joan Roís de Corella is one of the most renowned authors of fifteenth-century Catalan literature. His Story of Leander and Hero uses a well-known Vergilian and Ovidian motif of unremitting love that turns into tragedy. Corella retells the story adding to it a great dose of suspense and pathos and recasts it in the fashion of sentimental prose, a genre famous at the time and a clear precedent of the great narrative genre to flourish during the Renaissance in the Iberian Peninsula and Europe: the novel. La metrica che incornicia i versi di Adele Tramontano esalta la capacità dell'autrice di questa silloge di riuscire a trasmettere, anche in poche righe, emozioni intense e a costruire universi sensoriali dove perdersi è un piacevole viaggio. A volte ricorrono le rime bacciate; più spesso queste sono assenti e la melodia è affidata alla trascendente composizione creata dalle parole e dai messaggi che esse veicolano. C'è una dimensione in cui fuggire, anche solo per trovare ristoro temporaneo o per riflettere, che emerge dai componimenti ideati dalla penna dell'Autrice. È un'estensione del mondo interiore dai contorni sfumati e dalle atmosfere oniriche e rarefatte dove pensieri e sentimenti dominano incontrastati, o quantomeno più liberi. Qui può aver luogo quella ricerca di risposte a cui l'anima sensibile – quella felicemente percepibile nei poeti – si sottopone. Adele Tramontano è una manager pubblica, pittrice e autrice di articoli e testi nel campo del diritto amministrativo. Per te, che sei il mio mare è la sua prima opera letteraria. Since the publication of the first edition in 1964, Phonetic Readings of Songs and Arias has served singers, teachers of singing, and students of lyric diction as a guide to the correct pronunciation of songs in foreign languages. "Mi Vida...en uniforme" in English means "My Life ...in uniform" and is a sequel to my first book titled "Mi Calle, Mi Barrio, Mi Pueblo" which again translated to English means "My Street, My Neighborhood, My Town". Each one of those books narrates a distinct phase of my life with all the anecdotes, persons, and situations that formed me as a person. Mi Vida starts where Mi Calle ends and walks the reader while having a conversation, as good friends do, through my life as a college student and then as a United States Army Officer for twenty one years which included a war, Viet Nam, and a series of very challenging and most of them rewarding tours of duty around the world. Those years were not easy but they gave me a profound insight into life and those instances, some very happy and some very sad, are the ones that I wish to share with the reader. Take this walk with me and please feel free to join in the conversation. Un abrazo, Luis. Un bambino, le vacanze estive, il mare. Ricordi di straordinaria leggerezza, rapidi come le onde, lunghi come la strada percorsa sotto il sole. E un papà-capitano che insegna a nuotare, ad amare la spiaggia e i suoi giochi, mentre brillano i colori delle estati d'oro degli anni Sessanta italiani, il mare azzurro, i canotti e i materassini arancioni, le automobili, come la Giulietta, di un'età favolosa. E intanto, nel viaggio verso la vacanza, il mare, si disegna una storia 'on the road', un poema d'iniziazione alla vita e all'avventura. Il protagonista pensa che la sua vita si stia disfacendo, sfuggendogli fra le dita. Un giorno, un sogno ripetuto ed indecifrabile e poi una gita in barca che finisce in tragedia impongono un inesorabile ripensamento del proprio percorso umano. Nuotando da solo per ore in un mare forza sette, immerso nel buio della notte e dell'anima, il naufrago ripercorre tutta la sua vita e ricuce la tela di affetti, storie e fallimenti che puntellano la trama della sua storia, spingendo la morte ed il cedimento un po' più in là, un minuto alla volta, fino ad un'incredibile rivelazione finale. Una storia vera di resilienza, dove la forza dei legami d'affetto va al di là della paura, della stanchezza e della morte stessa e diventa una celebrazione della vita. E' il racconto del mio incontro con lo Shiatsu e di come ha cambiato la mia vita grazie alle tecniche e gli strumenti millenari che, quest'antica arte per la salute, mi ha donato. Poi l'esperienza mi ha portato verso tecniche psicologiche occidentali che ho integrato nel percorso, rendendo lo Shiatsu ancora più efficace. Ho suddiviso il libro in tre capitoli tanti quanti sono stati i passi essenziali, del mio percorso evolutivo, che mi hanno permesso di affrontare e superare le difficoltà avverse della vita: nella salute, nelle relazioni, nella professione. Nel quarto e nel quinto capitolo imparerai le tecniche orientali millenarie che mi hanno guidato e che ho descritto nel libro e che aiuteranno anche te a trasformare la tua vita . IMMAGINA COME SAREBBE LA TUA VITA DEDITA ALLA TUA TRASFORMAZIONE E A QUELLA DEGLI ALTRI !! "Grazie allo Shiatsu ho recuperato il mio corpo, le mie emozioni, la mia unità. Ed è proprio per questo che voglio raccontarti questa mia storia d'amore. Lo Shiatsu parte soprattutto dal cuore perché è dal cuore che mi è stato donato ed è con il cuore che lo voglio restituire."
