How can we rekindle the love we once had? What are the ingredients for a successful marriage? What types of things can we do to keep the love alive in our marriage? Kenneth W. Matheson, marriage counselor and professor in the School of Social Work at Brigham Young University, has answered these and many other questions in Keeping Love Alive: Answers to 100 Marriage Questions. Discussing topics such as communication, honesty, intimacy, and religion, Matheson takes an in-depth look at marriage relationships and what makes them work. Answering real questions from real situations, this enlightening guide addresses common marital problems and offers sound advice on how to resolve them. With its guarantee of success, Keeping Love Alive: Answers to 100 Marriage Questions is a must-have for every couple in every stage of marriage. What happens over time to Indians who spend their working hours answering phone calls from Americans—and acting like Americans themselves? To find out, the authors of Answer the Call conducted long-term interviews with forty-five agents, trainers, managers, and CEOs at call centers in Bangalore and Mumbai from 2003 to 2012. For nine or ten hours every day, workers in call centers are not quite in India or America but rather in a state of “virtual migration.” Encouraged to steep themselves in American culture from afar, over time the agents come to internalize and indeed perform Americanness for Americans—and for each other. Call center agents “migrate” through time and through the virtual spaces generated by voice and information sharing. Drawing from their rich interviews, the authors show that the virtual migration agents undergo has no geographically distant point of arrival, yet their perception of moving is not merely abstract. Over the duration of the job, agents’ sense of place and time changes: agents migrate but still remain, leaving them somewhere in between—between India and America, experience and imagination, class mobility and consumption, tradition and modernity, here and there, then and now, past and future. However tangible and elastic their virtual mobility might seem in these relatively lucrative jobs, it is also suspended within the confines of the very boundaries they migrate across. Having engaged with these vivid and often poignant interviews, readers will never again be indifferent to an Indian agent's greeting at the other end of a toll-free call: "Hello, my name is Roxanne. How may I help you?" Beginning with 1917, the Opinions, rules and regulations of the Public Service Commission and the Workmens Compensation Board, previously included in the Dauphin County reports, are issued separately.
