Penelitian ini mengungkap adanya perkembangan dan kemajuan pendidikan Islam yang signifikan di suatu daerah yang notabene mayoritas Kristiani. Tujuan penelitian ini adalah untuk membahas tentang dinamika pendidikan Islam minoritas di Nusa Tenggara Timur yang fokus pada analisis eksistensi, kontestasi dan konvergensi pada pergerakan Universitas Muhammadiyah Kupang (UMK) yang telah berdiri sejak tahun 1987. Menggunakan metode kualitatif dengan pendekatan sosiologi pendidikan, penelitian ini menunjukkan bahwa dinamika pendidikan Islam Universitas Muhammadiyah Kupang (UMK) sebagai minoritas telah mampu mempertahankan eksistensi, berkontestasi, dan mencari titik konvergensi dengan penduduk mayoritas yang notabene Kristiani di Nusa Tenggara Timur. Hal itu disebabkan karena ia memiliki sikap terbuka dalam mendefinisikan pemikiran yang inklusif, toleran, dan fairness dalam konteks kehidupan sosial yang plural. Realitas empirik itu selaras dengan pendapat Gry Hvass Pedersen (2016) dan Brooks (2018) bahwa komunitas muslim sangat mampu mempertahankan eksistensi bahkan lebih dari itu sebagai kaum minoritas bila memiliki sifat terbuka dan mampu mendefinisikan ideologinya, mengekspresikan agama secara adaptif, selektif menggunakan simbol identitas, dan terpenting adalah bisa menyajikan kebutuhan masyarakat. Secara otomatis temuan ini membantah pendapat Kinloch (1979) yang menurunkan optimisme kelompok dengan mendefinisikan kaum minoritas sebagai kaum lebih rendah yang sudah pasti memiliki cacat secara fisik maupun mental sehingga dengan mudah tereksplorasi dan didiskriminasi, yang pada akhirnya tidak dapat bertahan apalagi memiliki kekuasaan. Discusses the reckless annihilation of fish and birds by the use of pesticides and warns of the possible genetic effects on humans. Public Policy Analysis, the most widely cited book on the subject, provides readers with a comprehensive methodology of public policy analysis. Starting from the premise that policy analysis is an applied social science discipline designed for solving practical problems facing public and nonprofit organizations, the book bridges the gap between theory and practice. It provides practical skills for conducting policy analysis and communicating findings through memos, position papers, and other forms of structured analytical writing. The book asks readers to critically analyze the arguments of policy practitioners as well as political scientists, economists, and political philosophers. What is Quality of Life in a society that has embraced information and communication technology (ICT)? What is Wisdom in this kind of society? And what things are helping or hindering us from having both wisdom and a good quality of life in ICT societies? Taking the reader through a quick analysis of the current social and psychological changes in the Information and Communication Society, Bradley challenges us to avoid becoming victims of technology - whether we are professionals, policymakers, parents or citizens. Indeed, she introduces a theoretical model based on four decades' worth of research to help the reader to understand this complex, technological world. In addition to focusing the reader's attention on convergence and acceleration, this model describes the interplay between technology, societal structure, organizational design and human roles, thus leading to what Bradley describes as a "good ICT society". Emphasising the necessity of a co-operative parallel between the automation and humanization of society, this innovative volume will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers interested in the subjects such as Information and Communication Technology and Social Change,

Psychology and Sociology, Computer Technology and Media Technology. This book introduces new concepts and mechanisms regarding the usage of both social media interactions and artifacts for peer education in digital educational games. Digital games in general, and digital educational games in particular, represent an area with a high potential for interdisciplinary innovation, not only from an information technology standpoint, but also from social science, psychological and didactic perspectives. This book presents an interdisciplinary approach to educational games, which is centered on information technology and aims at: (1) improving digital management by focusing on the exchange of learning outcomes and solution assessment in a peer-to-peer network of learners; (2) achieving digital implementation by using forms of interaction to change the course of educational games; and (3) providing digital support by fostering group-formation processes in educational situations to increase both the effects of educational games and knowledge exchange at the individual level. In addition to a systematic analysis of the relationship between software architecture, educational games and social media applications, the book also presents the implemented IT systems' architectures and algorithmic solutions as well as the resulting applicable evaluation findings from the field of interactive multimedia learning. This volume brings together new scholarship by Indonesian and non-Indonesian scholars on Indonesia's cultural history from 1950-1965. During the new nation's first decade and a half, Indonesia's links with the world and its sense of nationhood were vigorously negotiated on the cultural front. "Islam exists in global history with its richly variegated cultural and social realities. When these specific cultural contexts are marginalized, Islam is reduced to an ahistorical religion without the ability to contribute to humanity. This limited understanding of Islam has been a contributing factor in many of the violent conflicts in the present day. Reflecting on Islam in Indonesia, the world's third largest democracy, supporting the largest Muslim population, Ahmad Syafii Maarif argues for an understanding that is both faithful to Islam's essential teachings and open to constantly changing social and cultural contexts. Building on this, he then addresses critical contemporary issues such as democracy, human rights, religious freedom, the status of women, and the future of Islam. Through this book the breadth and depth of the ideas of one of Indonesia's foremost Muslim scholars are made accessible for English language readership." This book examines the biographies of nine major activist intellectuals whose work provides the core of what the Islamic resurgence became in the 1990s and is an important foundation for what it can become in the 21st century. Nine figures are covered: Ismail al-Faruqi, Khurshid Ahmad, Maryam Jameelah, Hasan Hanafi, Anwar Ibrahim, and Abdurrahman Wahid. This book offers essential insights into the challenges and complexities surrounding the medium of instruction (MOI), its impact on all languages and stakeholders in multilingual contexts, educational processes, developments and outcomes. MOI has been a prominent topic in recent debates on the role of languages in education in multilingual contexts, partly because prioritizing one language over others as the medium of instruction has a profound impact on all languages and stakeholders in multilingual contexts. These include, to name but a few, (language) teachers, teacher educators, students, and policymakers, as well as industries and enterprises built around the needs and expectations of these stakeholders. This book presents high-quality empirical research on education in multilingual societies. It highlights research findings that, in addition to providing descriptions of language learning, development and use in language contact and multilingual contexts, will help shape future language education policy and practices in multilingual societies. In this book, authors Tenko Raykov and George A. Marcoulides introduce students to the basics of structural equation modeling (SEM) through a conceptual, nonmathematical approach. For ease of understanding, the few mathematical formulas presented are used in a conceptual or illustrative nature, rather than a computational one. Featuring examples from EQS, LISREL, and Mplus, A First Course in Structural Equation Modeling is an excellent beginner's guide to learning how to set up input files to fit the most commonly used types of structural equation models with these programs. The basic ideas and methods for conducting SEM are independent of any particular software. Highlights of the Second Edition include: • Review of latent change (growth) analysis models at an introductory level • Coverage of the popular Mplus program • Updated examples of LISREL and EQS • Downloadable resources that contains all of the text's LISREL, EQS, and Mplus examples. A First Course in Structural Equation Modeling is intended as an introductory book for students and researchers in psychology, education, business, medicine, and other applied social, behavioral, and health sciences with limited or no previous exposure to

SEM. A prerequisite of basic statistics through regression analysis is recommended. The book frequently draws parallels between SEM and regression, making this prior knowledge helpful. Named a Best Book of 2021 by the Financial Times and a Best Science Book of 2021 by The Guardian “Rovelli is a genius and an amazing communicator... This is the place where science comes to life.” ?Neil Gaiman “One of the warmest, most elegant and most lucid interpreters to the laity of the dazzling enigmas of his discipline...[a] momentous book” ?John Banville, The Wall Street Journal A startling new look at quantum theory, from the New York Times bestselling author of Seven Brief Lessons on Physics, The Order of Time, and Anaximander. One of the world’s most renowned theoretical physicists, Carlo Rovelli has entranced millions of readers with his singular perspective on the cosmos. In Helgoland, he examines the enduring enigma of quantum theory. The quantum world Rovelli describes is as beautiful as it is unnerving. Helgoland is a treeless island in the North Sea where the twenty-three-year-old Werner Heisenberg made the crucial breakthrough for the creation of quantum mechanics, setting off a century of scientific revolution. Full of alarming ideas (ghost waves, distant objects that seem to be magically connected, cats that appear both dead and alive), quantum physics has led to countless discoveries and technological advancements. Today our understanding of the world is based on this theory, yet it is still profoundly mysterious. As scientists and philosophers continue to fiercely debate the meaning of the theory, Rovelli argues that its most unsettling contradictions can be explained by seeing the world as fundamentally made of relationships rather than substances. We and everything around us exist only in our interactions with one another. This bold idea suggests new directions for thinking about the structure of reality and even the nature of consciousness. Rovelli makes learning about quantum mechanics an almost psychedelic experience. Shifting our perspective once again, he takes us on a riveting journey through the universe so we can better comprehend our place in it. Selected peer-reviewed papers from the Annual International Conference on Renewable Energy (ICORE 2019) Selected, peer-reviewed papers from the annual International Conference on Renewable Energy (ICORE 2019), August 9-10, 2019, Malang, East Java, Indonesia Ideas and strategies for mining assessment data to determine what kind of instruction would likely improve student achievement. We are delighted to introduce the proceedings of the first edition of the 2019 International Conference on Advances in Education, Humanities, and Language (ICEL). The aim of ICEL (International Conference on Advances in Humanities, Education and Language) is to provide a platform for researchers, professionals, academicians as well as industrial professionals from all over the world to present their research results and development activities in Education, humanities, and Language. The theme of ICEL 2019 was “Mainstreaming the Influences on Higher Order of Thinking Skills in Humanities, Education, and Language in Industrial Revolution 4.0”. The technical program of ICEL 2019 consisted of 77 full papers, including invited papers in oral presentation sessions at the main conference tracks. Aside from the high quality technical paper presentations, the technical program also featured six keynote speeches, Hamamah, Ph.D (Univeritas Brawijaya, Indonesia), Prof. Dr. Nuraihan binti Mat Daud (UIIM, Malaysia), Dr. Edith Dunn (Conservator/Cultural Specialist, USA), Prof. Yoshihiko -Sugimura (university of Mizaki, Japan), Prof. Park Yoonho (Suncheon National University, Korea) and Prof. Su Keh Bow (Soochow University, Taiwan). We strongly believe that ICEL conference provides a good forum for all researchers, developers and practitioners to discuss various advances that are relevant to education, humanities, and language. We also expect that the future ICEL conference will be as successful and stimulating, as indicated by the contributions presented in this volume For two reasons, we are particularly proud to include Wolfgang Brezinka's Philosophy of Educational Knowledge in this series of books on Philosophy of Education. The first is the philosophical interest of the work itself-its remarkable scholarship and the importance of the philosophical positions will be obvious to all readers. The second is that it brings to the English-speaking world a wonderful example of educational philosophy as now being practiced in the German-speaking world. All too often philosophers in the Anglo-American tradition have not seen the sort of perspective on educational thinking that infuses this work. And since this book has been widely read in its original version, it has had a considerable impact upon philosophy of educational research and science in the German-speaking countries. An understanding of this may help in the development of even more cooperative relations among students of education in all countries. C. I. B. Macmillan D. C. Phillips PREFACE TO THE ENGLISH EDITION 'I am not unmindful how little can be done... in a mere treatise on Logic, or how vague and unsatisfactory all precepts of Method must necessarily appear, when not practically exemplified in the establishment of a body of doctrine. Doubtless, the most effectual mode of showing how the sciences... maybe constructed,would be to construct them". JOHNSTUARTMILL (1843)¹ Parents have a duty to educate their children, teachers to educate their pupils. For this reason there is widespread interest in education. Knowledge of education has long been offered under names like "pedagogics", "pedagogy" or "educational theory". Originally this meant practical knowledge based on common sense. Since the Enlightenment, however, attempts have been made to acquire scientific knowledge of education. Riset ini secara seksama mencermati pengaruh metakognisi, efikasi diri, dan motivasi siswa dalam mewujudkan efektivitas pembelajaran Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah. Mata pelajaran Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah sebagai penciri lembaga pendidikan Muhammadiyah tentu harus memiliki kontribusi signifikan khususnya dalam ranah pengetahuan dan nilai (value) sebagai dimensi esensialnya. Meskipun dalam implementasi di sekolah dianggap sebagai muatan lokal, namun Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah memiliki kurikulum yang bersifat nasional. Keberadaan Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah sebagai mata pelajaran atau bidang studi pada sekolah Muhammadiyah tidak lepas sebagai rantai gerakan dakwah dan tajdid dalam rangka mewujudkan Islam rahmatan lil alamin. Konteks ini sejalan dengan apa yang menjadi tujuan utama pembelajaran Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah yaitu manusia yang beriman dan berakhlak. Konsep ini di era pendidikan modern populer dengan istilah pendidikan karakter. Multikulturalisme dan multi perspektif pemahaman agama siswa yang bersekolah di lembaga pendidikan Muhammadiyah menjadi tantangan tersendiri bagi perwujudan efektifitas pembelajaran Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah. Mata pelajaran atau bidang studi Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah yang merupakan bagian dari rumpun pendidikan agama Islam pada kurikulum nasional, tidak hanya bersifat pengetahuan namun sekaligus sebagai proses penanaman. Mempelajari mata pelajaran tersebut tidak hanya bersifat keilmuan (scientific) tetapi juga bersifat doktriner yang dalam istilah dipahami sebagai pendekatan scientific cum doctriner. Peranan metakognisi, efikasi diri, dan motivasi dalam konteks pembelajaran sangat diperlukan sehingga dapat menciptakan pembelajaran yang efektif. Adanya pengetahuan siswa terhadap perkembangan kognisinya, kesadaran siswa, dan motivasi siswa dalam belajar menjadi elemen penting yang harus dikelola secara paripurna. Dimensi ini akan berimplikasi pada keterwujudan efektivitas pembelajaran Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah. Mengetahui mana yang memiliki pengaruh dapat dijadikan referensi sebagai basis pembelajaran Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah. Harapan hasil penelitian ini dalam tataran ideal menjadi rujukan dalam ranah riset berkaitan dengan Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah. Ranah praktis dapat menjadi salah satu pelengkap dinamisasi penelitian tentang Al-Islam dan Kemuhammadiyah. Since the spread of COVID-19, conferences have been canceled, schools have closed, and libraries around the world are facing difficult decisions on which services to offer and how, ranging from minimal restrictions to full closures. Depending on the country, state, or city, a government may have a different approach, sometimes ordering the closure of all institutions, others indicating that it's business as usual, and others simply leaving decisions up to library directors. All libraries worldwide have been affected, from university libraries to public library systems and national libraries. Throughout these closures, libraries continue to provide services to their communities, which has led to an emerging area of research on library services, new emerging technologies, and the advancements made to libraries during this global health crisis. The Handbook of Research on Library Response to the COVID-19 Pandemic consists of chapters that contain essential library services and emerging research and technology that evolved and/or has continued during the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as the challenges and opportunities that have been undertaken as a result. The chapters provide in-depth research, surveys, and information on areas such as remote working, machine learning, data management, and the role of information during COVID-19. This book is a valuable reference tool for practitioners, stakeholders, researchers, academicians, and students who are interested in the current state of libraries during a pandemic and the future outlook. The dissertation aims at reducing this gap in the literature on Islamic cultures, and provides its readers with ways of approaching and understanding Ramadan - and various different Islamic phenomena - in Indonesia and in other parts of the Muslim world. It is argued that we preferably may approach Islam from three different angles, that is, to discuss it from the normative, the written, and the lived perspectives respectively. In this study, thorough attention is thus directed not only to the classical and normative Islamic texts and the lived reality in Java, but also to the popular and contemporary Indonesian literature on Ramadan. Records management has undergone significant change in recent years, owing to the introduction of freedom of information legislation as well as the development of e-government and e-business and the need to manage records effectively in both the private and public sector. There are very few purely practical texts for records managers and this book aims to fill that gap. The author has spent his entire career in public sector records management and has contributed to records management standards for governments around the world. The text is wholly practical and written at an accessible level. Although the author discusses legislation and examples from the UK, the book is relevant to public sector records management at an international level. It will be essential reading for professionals in record management posts as well as anyone who is responsible for record keeping as part of their operational duties. Malapy is an International Conference hosted by Universitas Pancasakti Tegal. This Conference is arranged to become an annual conference making room for scholars and practitioners in the area of economic, legal, educational, environmental aspects as well as a combination of all these aspects. While most English professionals feel comfortable with language and literacy theories, assessment theories seem more alien. English professionals often don't have a clear understanding of the key concepts in educational measurement, such as validity and reliability, nor do they understand the statistical formulas associated with psychometrics. But understanding assessment theory—and applying it—by those who are not psychometricians is critical in developing useful, ethical assessments in college writing programs, and in interpreting and using assessment results. A Guide to College Writing Assessment is designed as an introduction and source book for WPAs, department chairs, teachers, and administrators. Always cognizant of the critical components of particular teaching contexts, O'Neill, Moore, and Huot have written sophisticated but accessible chapters on the history, theory, application and background of writing assessment, and they offer a dozen appendices of practical samples and models for a range of common assessment needs. Because there are numerous resources available to assist faculty in assessing the writing of individual students in particular classrooms, A Guide to College Writing Assessment focuses on approaches to the kinds of assessment that typically happen outside of individual classrooms: placement evaluation, exit examination, programmatic assessment, and faculty evaluation. Most of all, the argument of this book is that creating the conditions for meaningful college writing assessment hinges not only on understanding the history and theories informing assessment practice, but also on composition programs availing themselves of the full range of available assessment practices. This book examines the various thinking skills that leaders may need to find success in contemporary organizations and institutions, covering a wide array of skills that are held to be important by key leadership scholars. Bridging theory and practice, chapters summarize major findings with respect to a particular ability, knowledge, or skill, providing theoretical frameworks for understanding how these contribute to leader emergence and performance, and considering implications for leader selection, assessment, and development. The text appraises the existing research on the critical cognitive capabilities that underlie leader problem-solving and implications for the assessment and development of leadership potential in real-world settings. The role of creative thinking skills on leader performance is also addressed, bearing on the importance of processes such as problem definition and idea generation, but also using constraints to potentially stimulate creative thought. With contributions from some of the most eminent scholars working in the field of leadership, this book will be an invaluable resource to academics, researchers, graduate students, and professionals interested in leadership and leader skills, I/O psychology, and business management. First published in 2012. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company.
