If properly prepared and arranged it is a treasure to every graduate as the product of his class. Realizing these things the members of our class have always been unanimous in their desire for an Annual. Early in our Senior Year we began to plan for the Book; being inexperienced hands we made little progress, and at times our cause seemed hopeless. After much vain struggling, gaining a dollar at a time, we at last gained a foothold, and now present to you the fruit of our efforts. The Annual Board extends their heartfelt thanks to those who, by their help and suggestions have helped to make this We are especially grateful to Brice V. Mann who, sacrificing his own time and energy, has drawn the fine cartoons which appear in this book. The Annual Board has put forth their utmost efforts to make this book all that an Annual should be. Being of only mediocre ability it is probable that many imperfections have crept into our work.
