From Seva to Cyberspace examines the phenomenon of volunteering in India from its earliest instances to present-day manifestations. Tracing the origins of voluntary action in India, the authors examine the historic, religious, and cultural traditions of Seva (direct service to others) that have played an important role in inspiring Indians toward voluntary action. The book defines the volunteer and discusses the methods of measuring the value of volunteer labor to NGOs. It includes a detailed discussion of the particular contributions of the oldest and youngest volunteers in India. The distinctive motivations and contributions of those with a religious inspiration for voluntary action are explored at length, as are the important issues of service clubs and corporate support for volunteer activities. A unique feature of the book is that it is enriched with narratives and case studies of individuals and organizations that throw light on specific aspects of volunteerism in the Indian context. The book concludes by taking a look at new trends and the strong continuing traditions that inspire modern volunteers to offer their time and talents in the service of society. This book provides a unique understanding of the concept and practice of seva (service) in modern India. It examines social reform, key ameliorative programmes, seva organisations, nationalist politics and colonial anthropology to show the critical linkages between caste politics, tribal welfare and capitalist development. Drawing upon archival research and field interviews, the author establishes a critical dialogue with both historiography and ethnography. Further, he explores how the works of Gandhi, Nehru, Ambedkar, Gokhale, and others functioned in the political discourses and practices of their time. This lucid and comprehensive study will interest scholars and researchers in political theory, modern Indian history, sociology and social anthropology, Dalit and tribal studies, and cultural studies. This book details two major SEVA projects founded by Mr. and Mrs. P.C. Mangalick in Agra, India. SEVA is selfless service that an individual or group provides to underprivileged people. These acts of selfless service are prompted by an awareness of the presence of God in all beings. Opstel over het boek van John de Pool (1873-1947). Teased by their friends that no one will ever know, Johnny and Janie ignore their parents' warnings about the big, bad wolf. Wanting big, delicious acorns at Mr. Smith's farm, they and their friends hatch a plan to sneak out of their homes during the night. They can't wait to feast on the delicious acorns from Mr. Smith's farm. The young squirrels' moon-lit adventure and delightful meal suddenly ends when a very hungry wolf chases them. Barely escaping with their lives, the young squirrels learn to disobey is wrong even when you think no one will ever know. Virtues: Honesty / Respect for Parents / Trust Ignorando las reglas, cuatro jóvenes ardillas escuchan a sus amigos y se escabullen para comer bellotas grandes y deliciosas. Pero surgen problemas cuando se encuentran con un lobo hambriento. Apenas escapando con sus vidas, las ardillas aprenden que desobedecer está mal incluso cuando crees que nadie lo sabrá nunca. „?inta mea este de a-i convinge pe to?i cei care cred c? merit? s? te îndeletnice?ti cu metafizica de faptul c? este neap?rat necesar ca ei s?-?i îtrerup? pentru o vreme orice activitate, s? nu mai ?in? seama de cele ce s-au înf?ptuit pân? în prezent ?i s?-?i pun? mai întâi de toate întrebarea: «Este metafizica, în genere, posibil??» „Nu este îns? ceva chiar nemaiauzit ca, dup? o îndelungat? str?danie în câmpul unei anumite ?tiin?e, atunci când lumea se minunează cât a ajuns ea de departe, s?-i treac? totu?i, în cele din urmă, cuiva prin minte întrebarea: dac? ?i în ce chip o asemenea ?tiin?? este în genere posibil?? C?ci ra?iunea uman? este atât de dornic? s? construiască, încât în mai multe rânduri ea a ridicat deja turnul, iar apoi l-a d?râmat pentru a afla cum îi sunt alc?tuite temelile.“ (Immanuel KANT) „Republicarea repetat? a acestei traduceri este deosebit de îmbucur?toare, în m?sură în care arată cât de viu a r?mas, la noi, interesul pentru filozofia lui Kant. Cu atât mai mult cu cât textul acestei scrieri, chiar dac? nu tot a?a de arid precum cel al Criticii ra?iunii pure, nu este deloc u?or de parcurs. Disponibilitatea cititorilor de a înfrunta aceste greut?i are o bună explica?ie. Mul?i ?tiu c? gânditorul din Königsberg a scris Prolegomenele tocmai cu inten?ia de a înlesni accesul la idei centrale ale filozofiei sale critice.“ (Mircea FLONTA, Thomas KLEININGER) Welcome Narayan Seva Sansthan is an NGO established in 1985 by Dr. Kailash Agrawal 'Manav' to treat patients suffering from polio, cerebral palsy and serve the orthopedically handicapped and disabled. This book describes the deeds of Narendra Bhai Modi dedicated to the country and development. The deeds done to make the dream of making India a world leader have been described in this book. There is a book by Narendra Bhai describing the work of women empowerment, farmers, youth, security and health. Narendra Bhai said that "Jaan Hai to Jahan Hai" means the health of the people of the country is the health of the nation because education, health is the foundation of the development of the country. According to Indian culture, the concept of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" describes the work done by the family's vision with the world on economic, political and humanitarian grounds to make it meaningful. The first part of the book gives practical aspects of performing seva in the USA, India and Guyana, South America. I give case histories from my own experience and how I navigated the turbulent waters to deliver what we set out to accomplish. I hope that our team's work will motivate others to understand the difficulties and find solutions to fulfilling the goal of seva. At the end, we could not achieve anything without the help of dedicated team members many of whom gave up their vacations and willingly gave their money and energy to make a difference. The second part of the book examined 5 case studies of our work dealing with kidney and corneal transplants in Guyana, blood and bone marrow drives in the USA under the auspices of the Hindu Mandir Executive Committee, distance learning in the UK and the Global Energy Parliament, Kerala, India. The third part of the book gives cautionary lessons in managing seva projects across the world. The fourth part of the book gives theoretical aspects of seva, which include social networks in management of complex missionary projects, the use of social networking technology in the promotion and scaling up of complex global health initiatives, the growing phenomenon of "voluntourism" and Distance Learning. Our case histories represent a variety of situations across continents. Having initiated and carried these projects from scratch to fruition has given us an insight into the many issues others may face when they initiate their own projects. We experienced frustration at many points in the trajectory of our projects; however, we persevered and perhaps achieved modest success. We should confess that we thought of abandoning and giving up at multiple stages of our projects, however, we were reminded of the beneficiaries and continued against many odds and obstacles. Some of these could have been prevented but others were inevitable. Seva Foundation, a global non-profit eye care organization, established the Global Sight Initiative (GSI) to help end avoidable blindness. GSI, composed of more than 100 hospitals across 20 countries, promotes universal access to culturally appropriate, affordable, and high-quality eye care services. The purpose is to create self-sustaining, comprehensive eye care systems serving marginalized communities throughout the developing world. In January 2016, Seva partnered with Seeing Is Believing (SiB) to support the Global Sight Initiative (GSI) intervention in India through the "SCALE: Strengthening Capacity and Learning to Effectively Deliver Quality Eye Care" (SCALE) project started in mid-2016. The project's goal was to scale up comprehensive quality eye care services through capacity building, resulting in a direct increase in the restored sight of people. The SCALE project was completed in December 2019. The purpose of this endline impact evaluation study was to review the performance of the SCALE program vis-à-vis its objectives by analyzing the program data as reported by hospitals and presenting the perceived impact and feedback from the data collected through structured questionnaires and consultations with the mentee and mentor hospitals, as well as highlighting the suggested improvements. Analysis of the quantitative program data showed a remarkable performance for all objectives of the program, with inevitable scope for improvement. Feedback from hospital partners was promising, with all noting an inclination to recommend the SCALE program to other hospitals in need of support. Based upon the overall understanding and assessment of the SCALE program, some crucial suggestions and recommendations emerged for future action in the areas of data collection and reporting, capacity building, gender inclusion, mentoring and support, cross-learning, monitoring and evaluation, and research and development, among others.
