On April 5th, 1514, a mysterious noblewoman leaves a newborn bearing only an unusual golden necklace at the gates of the Château du Clos Lucé in Amboise, France. Named "Cinq Avril" by the cooks who care for him, and taken under the wing of another resident of the castle, a certain Leonardo da Vinci, the child grows in energy and knowledge as he's instructed in a multitude of secrets. When his mentor dies, the young man discovers a posthumous letter explaining that he has the power to change the course of history if he can unravel the enigma of his birth. The journalism and personal writings of the great American abolitionist and reformer Frederick Douglass Launching the fourth series of The Frederick Douglass Papers, designed to introduce readers to the broadest range of Frederick Douglass's writing, this volume contains sixty-seven pieces by Douglass, including articles written for North American Review and the New York Independent, as well as unpublished poems, book transcriptions, and travel diaries. Spanning from the 1840s to the 1890s, the documents reproduced in this volume demonstrate how Douglass's writing evolved over the five decades of his public life. Where his writing for publication was concerned mostly with antislavery advocacy, his unpublished works give readers a glimpse into his religious and personal reflections. The writings are organized chronologically and accompanied by annotations offering biographical information as well as explanations of events mentioned and literary or historical allusions. In a distant future lives a young woman named Blanche. She's the heiress of Cocto Citadel, a neofeudal city like those that arose after the end of the world... When Blanche and her father find themselves at the center of dramatic power struggles, it's in the heart of NeoForest, the Great Central Forest, that everything must be decided. From 1889 to 1918 the reports consist of the Report of the director and appendixes, which from 1893 include various bulletins issued by the library (Additions; Bibliography; History; Legislation; Library school; Public libraries) These, including the Report of the director, were each issued also separately. Denis Duval, Lovel the Widower and Other stories is a collection of stories by William Makepeace Thackeray. Among the various stories, Denis Duval (1864) portrays the main character's love for the beautiful Agnes de Saverne. Lovel the Widower (1860) depicts the life, marriage, and sorrows of a wealthy gentleman, Mr. Fred Lovel. The volume also contains The Bedford-Row Conspiracy, A Little Dinner at Timmins's, and The Fatal Boots. This book is about three heads with no bodies that can get crazy. Includes entries for maps and atlases. NATIONAL BESTSELLER • A deeply engaging history of how European settlements in the post-Colombian Americas shaped the world—from the highly acclaimed author of 1491. • "Fascinating...Lively...A convincing explanation of why our world is the way it is." —The New York Times Book Review Presenting the latest research by biologists, anthropologists, archaeologists, and historians,

Mann shows how the post-Columbian network of ecological and economic exchange fostered the rise of Europe, devastated imperial China, convulsed Africa, and for two centuries made Mexico City—where Asia, Europe, and the new frontier of the Americas dynamically interacted—the center of the world. In this history, Mann uncovers the germ of today's fiercest political disputes, from immigration to trade policy to culture wars. In 1493, Mann has again given readers an eye-opening scientific interpretation of our past, unequalled in its authority and fascination. Quando Cristóvão Colombo descobriu a América, abrindo aos impérios espanhol e português à conquista do novo mundo, seguidos por outros colonizadores europeus, começava uma nova era não só na história da humanidade, mas na própria vida do planeta. A globalização não foi só económica e política, mas também biológica. O desencadear de uma troca mundial de plantas, animais, insectos, produtos e doenças criou novos hábitos alimentares e culturais, destruiu culturas agrícolas e criou outras novas em sítios onde nunca haviam sido vistas, e revolucionou todo o planeta. Para dar conta dessa transformação profunda, ainda não revelada nos livros de História, o jornalista americano Charles C. Mann reúne o trabalho pioneiro de biólogos, antropólogos, arqueólogos e historiadores que nos últimos anos trouxeram à luz do dia o passado esquecido dos nossos continentes. As transformações ecológicas e económicas iniciadas pelas viagens de Colombo foram um dos incontornáveis eventos que marcaram o mundo moderno. Aliando factos históricos, pesquisa científica e uma fascinante escrita literária, Charles C. Mann relata como alterações de ordem ecológica e económica, desencadeadas pela descoberta de Colombo, acabaram por marcar definitivamente a história humana. Volume 13 of the Handbook of Middle American Indians, published in cooperation with the Middle American Research Institute of Tulane University under the general editorship of Robert Wauchope (1909-1979), constitutes Part 2 of the Guide to Ethnohistorical Sources. The Guide has been assembled under the volume editorship of the late Howard F. Cline, Director of the Hispanic Foundation in the Library of Congress, with Charles Gibson, John B. Glass, and H. B. Nicholson as associate volume editors. It covers geography and ethnogeography (Volume 12); sources in the European tradition (Volume 13); and sources in the native tradition (Volumes 14 and 15). The present volume contains the following studies on sources in the European tradition: "Published Collections of Documents Relating to Middle American Ethnohistory," by Charles Gibson "An Introductory Survey of Secular Writings in the European Tradition on Colonial Middle America, 1503-1818," by J. Benedict Warren "Religious

Chroniclers and Historians: A Summary with Annotated Bibliography," by Ernest J. Burrus, S.J. "Bernardino de Sahagún," by Luis Nicolau d'Olwer, Howard F. Cline, and H. B. Nicholson "Antonio de Herrera," by Manuel Ballesteros Gaibrois "Juan de Torquemada," by José Alcina Franch "Francisco Javier Clavigero," by Charles E. Ronan, S.J. "Charles Etienne Brasseur de Bourbourg," by Carroll Edward Mace "Hubert Howe Bancroft," by Howard F. Cline "Eduard Georg Seler," by H. B. Nicholson "Selected Nineteenth-Century Mexican Writers on Ethnohistory," by Howard F. Cline The Handbook of Middle American Indians was assembled and edited at the Middle American Research Institute of Tulane University with the assistance of grants from the National Science Foundation and under the sponsorship of the National Research Council Committee on Latin American Anthropology. As Grand Chancellor to the Holy Roman Emperor, Mercurino di

Gattinara (1465-1530) shaped the administration and aims of the Spanish Empire. Ard Boone situates Gattinara at the heart of Renaissance politics and propaganda and provides the first English translation of his autobiography in full.
