with the most realistic and up-to-date MCQ and EMIs, closely matched to themes appearing most often in the Paper B exam. The Royal College of Psychiatrists has recently changed the format of its membership examination to adopt multiple choice questions (MCQs). This book of mock MCQ papers includes 675 questions and answers covering all subjects of the Paper I curriculum. It is an essential aid for all candidates preparing for the MRPsch Paper I, and will also be useful for those revising for the similarly-themed Paper II and Paper III examinations. Is the education system killing off young people's desire to learn? Does it damage their emotional development? What effects do examinations and tests have on them? Are we asking the impossible by making academic performance in the difficult adolescent years so important? Education is increasingly answering the needs of the marketplace, and as a result young people's experience of education has less to do with curiosity and more to do with compliance. Alex Coren uses the insights of psychoanalysis to take a searching look at our education system and the effects it has on young people. This thoughtful text carefully leads the reader through the eight content domains of the EPPP in a manner that is comforting and refreshingly substantive. It is an excellent investment in one's professional future." Patrick DeLeon, PhD,

JD, MPH Past-President, American Psychological Association This authoritative guide to the EPPP provides an affordable and comprehensive review of core exam content and includes over 300 sample questions. The guide goes beyond merely "teaching the test" by including contributions from the directors of top psychology training and internship programs in the US. This approach helps users to obtain the depth and breadth of knowledge required for passing the exam, and mirrors how doctoral level courses are commonly taught. The review covers the development and format of the EPPP along with successful test-taking strategies. Chapters covering EPPP content domains each include a comprehensive review of the material, key points to remember, sample questions, and recommended readings. In order to reflect test presentation, chapter authors cover each subject domain according to the ASPPB's EPPP Information for Candidates Guide. Chapter authors are comprised of clinical supervisors and faculty directly involved in training interns, residents, and fellows in psychology. Key Features: Presents an in-depth, comprehensive content review that goes beyond "teaching the test" Provides an
