When she eventually heard God through herself, he exposed the truth of how she had caused the cancer in her body through negative emotions and further revealed the thirty-six steps she needed to overcome cancer for good! Chadissa says, 'People die through a lack of knowledge, and enough is enough. People need to know the truth about cancer and how they are bigger than any disease.' In life, do you want to be a victim or a victor? Stay in a box or be free? Make disease terminal, or terminate dis-ease for good? Chadissa certainly wanted to be a free victor without disease! Don't wait until it's too late! Equip yourself now with truthful knowledge about cancer. Learn first-hand how Chadissa healed her own cancer after leaning into God for answers. Our Journey With God and How He Healed Me From Cancer Jun 26 2020 Take a deep breath and dive into a personal journey with Jesus Christ my Lord. How he takes us into the valley of trials. It is a time of doubt of sadness and Faith. The Lord has been doing amazing things in my life and with a 2 and a 3 year old I get the worst news on a Sunday morning, that I have breast cancer. Fear sets in anger, frustration and discouragement. I feel weak sick to my stomach and just hopeless. Where is God in all this???? I have been dedicating my life to Jesus in serving others, sharing his word and living as a good servant,. Why I would ask God why would you allow this, I thought I was covered by Jesus protection how can this be happening to me. I have 2 kids who need me and I had already struggled to get pregnant now that I have kids I am sick? All I can do is cry hold my kids so tight and wish it was a bad dream. I prayed it could all go away. I knew that I had to make a decision to be a victim of this horrible disease or a conqueror in Jesus. I cling to the Lord and asked for strength and healing. I decided to meet Jesus and surrender to his will. Whatever he wants for me, the Lord is my savior and I am a living testimony of healing. We must claim his name and stand firm for he will deliver us in due time, for his word does not come back void. I pray this will touch your heart and encourage you to trust the Lord in whatever you are facing. He is faithful Father.

Cancer Healed Naturally Dec 13 2021 The aim of my healing journey was not only to lengthen my life but also to have quality of life, even while I was in the process of healing. I was diagnosed in January 2009 with breast cancer which had metastasized into one of the lymph nodes under my arm. I was told by the doctor, I had probably 5 years to live if I did not undertake the conventional treatment of chemotherapy and radiation. After witnessing the effects of chemotherapy in my mom, I was reluctant to follow the same treatment. After researching the pros and cons of alternate treatment, I made the decision to set out on a journey less travelled. I was determined to live. My son was only 15 years old and I didn't want him to grow up without a mother. I had to search hard to gain understanding of what it would take to restore health in my body. I discovered that to heal cancer naturally, a holistic approach has to be taken. I learned that I needed to give attention to not only the body but also the mind (emotions), soul and spirit. It was very important for me to realise that cancer is as a result of a compromised immune system and to overcome it, this would need to be rectified. Through this journey, I achieved more than just physical healing. I also experience a tremendous amount of self growth and emotional healing. I can truly say that at 61 I am more energetic and comfortable in my body and mind now, than I was at 45. In this book I share every step of the healing process in detail. Furthermore, the healing modalities that I used are accompanied by research, citations and scientific studies. Some of the healing modalities discussed in the book are:

Don't Waste Your Cancer Jan 02 2021 How are we as Christians called to respond when cancer invades our lives, whether our own bodies or those of our friends and family? On the eve of his own cancer surgery, John Piper writes about cancer as an opportunity to glorify God. With pastoral sensitivity, compassion, and strength, Piper gently but firmly acknowledges that we can indeed waste our cancer when we don't see how it is God's good plan for us and a hope-filled path for making much of Jesus. Don't Waste Your Cancer is for anyone touched by a life-threatening illness. It first appeared as an appendix in Suffering and the Sovereignty of God. Repackaged and republished, it will serve as a hope-giving resource for healthcare workers, pastors, counselors, and others caring for those with cancer and other serious illnesses. The booklets are also available in packs of ten.

Waking Up from the Cancer Trance May 25 2020 • Ignorance about cancer can be fatal, expensive, and wholly unnecessary. • There are books on gentle, effective cancer care, but none of them tell the truth about our uniquely individual needs. • This book is as close to the whole truth as possible and includes the works of the great geniuses who healed cancer patients with remarkable results. • It also includes doctors and hospitals where healing cancer patients is not a crime. • I cured my own breast cancer but didn't stop researching until I found what was necessary to help all the others find their way. • Cancer is still a mystery, because the cancer industry does not want you to know that it is not a mystery. • Cancer prevention should be common knowledge, but it won't be until it is not sponsored by the conventional pharmaceutical industry. • Cancer care is at least a hundred years behind where it should be. • There will come a time when we will wake up and demand that individual cancer care be proven by large-scale clinical trials.

When God & Cancer Meet Jun 30 2023 A book of powerful stories about cancer patients and their families who have been touched by God in miraculous ways—some in their bodies, others in their minds, all in their spirits—offers inspiring testimony that, when God and cancer meet, cancer is conquered. The author, herself a cancer survivor, gives us a behind-the-scenes glimpse of 18 personal encounters with God. Here's what others are saying about When God & Cancer Meet: “ Lynn has captured the essence of hope in this book; captured hope in ways that I have always taught in my professional world as well as in my spiritual community. This book is a treasure to those who struggle with the fears of cancer and I want to keep it close at hand for those reasons. ” —Judy Lentz, RN, MSN, OCN, NHA Executive Director, Hospice and Palliative Nurses Association “ I co-lead a cancer support group at my church, and we have been looking for “ just the right book ” to study and discuss. Guess what?! Lyn wrote it! I was truly touched by all the stories; of course being a cancer-survivor myself, I saw myself in one of the stories, as if Lyn were writing my own personal story. I was truly impressed with the way she incorporated scripture, and God's viewpoint into every story. I think that is of utmost importance for anyone facing this disease. Lyn's book is “ Real-Life ” ; some quickly are healed of the cancer, some deal with it over a prolonged period, some deal with recurrences, some, mercifully, die rather quickly. I share Lyn's belief that GOD sometimes chooses to heal in different ways: physically, emotionally and spiritually. In the process of surviving a primary brain tumor, surgery, Chemo, and radiation, I gave my life to Christ, realizing that my physical health was not GOD's main concern, my Spiritual health was the biggest victim of a disease that needed attention and this was the way He FINALLY got my attention. Lyn's book alludes to this fact in every one of her stories. In this day and age that we are living, where it is against the rules to even mention GOD (unless we mention His name in vain) it is refreshing to have a book written, praising Him for His care and concern for us; written by a woman who has experienced the disease firsthand, and continues to minister to others with cancer, and to work for a Doctor! who isn't ashamed of his Faith ! WOW!! Obviously, Lyn's book has my highest recommendation, and my support group will be purchasing multiple copies, and we plan to invite Lyn to speak with us. Lyn is a wonderful person, and I thank God for allowing our paths to cross. I'm sure this book will touch many lives, and give many a new perspective and hope with their cancer. ” —Chris Winand, cancer survivor

The Cancer Whisperer Sep 09 2021 'I have cancer. Cancer does not have me.' Sophie Sabbage was diagnosed with late stage 'incurable' lung cancer in October 2014. She was 48 years old, happily married with a 4-year-old daughter. Since that day - when doctors told Sophie that her prognosis was poor - she has been on a remarkable journey of healing and transformation that has reshaped her vocation as well as changed her life for the better. The Cancer Whisperer chronicles Sophie's extraordinary relationship with cancer and the methods that she has used for dealing with fear, anger, denial and grief. The essence of 'cancer whispering' was born of Sophie's determination to take cancer off the battlefield and into the classroom. Instead of going to war with it, Sophie has chosen to listen to it, learn from it and choose her own response to it. Sophie offers a radically different way of relating to this disease both mentally and practically: she shares the research she has done, the treatments she has chosen, the diet she follows and the resources that she feels have made the biggest differences in the hope that they will help others cut through the mass of information out there. Sophie says: 'This book is for the cancer patient who wants to remain a dignified, empowered human being even when your doctors and diagnosis are scaring the hell out of you. It is also for the cancer patient who has a hunch that there is something for them to learn, gain or even be transformed by - if they just knew how to relate to this disease differently to the way most of society does. It is for the cancer patient, perhaps any patient.'
