Despite the international community's recognition of social protection as a human right, the vast majority of the world's population still has no access to social protection. In a major effort to address this situation, the International Labour Conference unanimously adopted the Social Protection Floors Recommendation 202 of 2012. However, because of the wide variety of possible schemes (and techniques that can be employed to administer them), there is a genuine risk that important values relating to social protection will be overlooked in implementing the Recommendation. This collection of expert essays contains an in-depth clarification and analysis of the Recommendation and sets forth a clear and practicable set of principles that can be used both as a policy tool and as an assessment framework for the creation, maintenance, and supervision of a national social protection floor. This book pays detailed attention to each of the Recommendation's key principles, including the following: – state responsibility; – universality of protection; – entitlement based in law; – adequacy and predictability of benefits; – non-discrimination; – financial solidarity; – good governance; – coherence of policies; and – social participation. A special feature of the book is its inclusion of case studies that display innovative social protection schemes focusing on children and families, persons of working age (particularly informal sector workers), and elderly persons. A concluding section offers useful insights on measures that can be taken and lessons learned. As a deeply informed and practical guide to ways in which states can (and do) establish and maintain a social protection floor as a fundamental element of their national social protection systems, this book has no peers. It will be warmly welcomed by jurists concerned with social protection throughout the world, by pertinent government agencies at all levels, by non-governmental organizations, and by academics in the field. "This book is an optimal tool for instructors and students of graduate classes in social work and related disciplines." --Journal of Immigrant and Minority Health "I applaud social work students, professors, and social workers who seek to serve and empower the immigrant community. This text is a great tool toward raising awareness of the many issues immigrants face, and helping them find solutions." --Frank Sharry, Executive Director, America's Voice "The book is a major contribution to social workers and their clients as it addresses advocacy on behalf of immigrants and refugees during a social, economic and political period that restricts immigrants' rights and service access." --Dr. Diane Drachman, Associate Professor, University of Connecticut School of Social Work

Successful social work with immigrants must begin with an understanding of their legal status and how that status impacts their housing, employment, health care, education, and virtually every other aspect of life. Chang-Muy and Congress present social workers with the only book on the market to emphasize the legal aspect of immigrant issues as well as critical practice and advocacy issues. Topics discussed include historical and current trends in immigration, applicable theories for practice with immigrants, policy and advocacy methods, and the need for cultural competence. By providing comprehensive coverage of both the legal and practice issues of this complex field, this book will help social service professionals and graduate students increase their cultural sensitivity and work more effectively with immigrants. Key Features: Covers the latest aspects of the immigration debate and discusses how social workers are affected by emerging immigration policies Discusses special populations such as refugees, elderly immigrants, and victims of international trafficking Includes case studies on the most critical issues immigrants face today: legal processes, physical and mental health issues, employment difficulties, family conflicts, and more Instructional Materials Available! [415]-423. From Davenport Publishing this easy to use book about Estate Planning in Nevada has ready to use legal forms to help control health care, property, money, children, funeral, and more if a person is later absent, sick, or dead. Many of the legal forms are the standard Nevada legal forms that doctors and judges prefer. Go to www.davenportpublishing.com to see books and legal forms. The Nevada legal forms provided are: - - AFTER DEATH FORMS - - Form 1. Will (Standard) - a Will (also called a "Last Will And Testament") lets person control things after their death like who gets their money and property, who is Executor, and allowing helpful legal options later. Form 2. Will (Guardian) - Will with part added to name someone as Guardian to care for a minor child under 18 if later needed (like if later no parent is available) and also manage a child's money and property. Form 3. Handwritten Will - this Will skips the usual need for 2 witnesses which saves time and work, but it must be all handwritten by person doing the Will (so no use of typing, computers, or legal forms). Form

4. Self-Proving Affidavit - form sometimes done with a Will to later prove it was properly signed. Form 5. Tangible Personal Property List - lets person easily outside Will write some more gifts to occur after death of "tangible personal property" like furniture, jewelry, vehicles, art, electronics, tools, and clothes. - - HEALTH CARE FORMS - - Form 6. Durable Power Of Attorney For Health Care - this popular form lets a person be named as Health Care Agent to if needed control health care and also lets health care instructions be written. Form 7. Living Will Declaration - lets a person do serious act of saying stop most health care if later they are incapacitated and doctors think the health situation is very bad and more care likely won't help. Form 8. Do-Not-Resuscitate - does serious act of saying from now on don't try resuscitation to help breathing or heart like C.P.R. (cardio-pulmonary resuscitation), and form is short so can be read quickly. - - GIVING POWER FORMS - - Form 9. Statutory Form Power Of Attorney - lets power over money, property, and more be given to a trusted person made Agent so they have legal power to do things, like use accounts, pay bills, and sell items. Form 10. Temporary Guardian - lets parent of a child under age 18 give someone power over the child so they can make decisions about health care, school, home, and more if needed. Form 11. Affidavit Authorizing Person To Order Burial Or Cremation - lets a person to later control their dead body give someone power over burial, cremation, and related things and write some suggestions. Also provided is the Estate Planning Helpful Information form to help pass on information to family and friends. See www.davenportpublishing.com to see books and legal forms. The Model Rules of Professional Conduct provides an up-to-date resource for information on legal ethics. Federal, state and local courts in all jurisdictions look to the Rules for guidance in solving lawyer malpractice cases, disciplinary actions, disqualification issues, sanctions questions and much more. In this volume, black-letter Rules of Professional Conduct are followed by numbered Comments that explain each Rule's purpose and provide suggestions for its practical application. The Rules will help you identify proper conduct in a variety of given situations, review those instances where discretionary action is possible, and define the nature of the relationship between you and your clients, colleagues and the courts. This book published by Davenport Press and written by attorneys has a review of Virginia law and a good range of ready to use Virginia Wills and Estate Planning legal forms. Estate planning concerns how a person can arrange things for and control upon illness or death their health care, property and money, children and dependents, legal matters, and more. Forms can be copied from the book or downloaded for free as the book's Appendix A explains. In this book 9 main legal forms are explained and provided, which are: 1. Last Will And Testament (lets one give orders to on death gift most property, choose guardians for children and their property, authorize less burdensome legal options to be used, pick person to be executor to handle affairs, and control other matters); 2. Last Will And Testament (No Guardians) (this Will form has no "Guardians" paragraph and is for people without minor children and also not giving property or money to any minors); 3. Self-Proving Affidavit (this form is often done with a Will to avoid work after a death of showing a Will was signed correctly by getting testimony of witnesses to the Will signing, and using this form increases the chance a Will is enforceable); 4. Tangible Personal Property List (lets one write in a simple list outside a Will wanted gifts to occur on death of "tangible personal property" like clothes, furniture, tools, jewelry, and vehicles, which list can be done or redone anytime and just needs to be signed); 5. Virginia Advance Medical Directive (sometimes called "Combined Power Of Attorney For Health Care And Living Will" lets a person be named to control health care in case one cannot later control own health care and lets many health care instructions be given); 6. Durable Do Not Resuscitate (this form can be requested from a doctor when in very bad health to quickly show paramedics and other medical personnel to not try restarting the heart or breathing and certain other major actions); 7. Virginia Power Of Attorney (sometimes called "Financial Power Of Attorney" lets power over one's money, property, and other matters be shared with a very trusted person so they can do things when someone is ill or busy and wants help); 8. Designation To Control Funeral And Disposition Of Remains (lets person be designated to control funeral, disposition of remains, and related matters rather than have closest family member do this, and the form also has space for suggestions to be given); and 9. Power Of Attorney Of Parent and Standby Guardian (if person other than parent will watch child for long a guardianship at court is usually done, but in other cases a "Power Of Attorney Of Parent" form lets a person share power over child with someone, or a "Standby Guardian" form lets a person be instantly given power upon a medical trigger of parent becoming incompetent, parent becoming debilitated and
