Spring has arrived in Ukraine, with all its beauty. Soon it will be Easter. This year, Dzvinya wants to surprise her Mama with an extra special gift so she goes outside to see what she can find. When she spies a speckled hen sitting on her eggs, Dzvinya remembers how her dear babtsya (grandmother) decorated eggs for her Easter basket. She gingerly picks up an egg and carries it home. That night she dreams of little critters magically floating in the dark sky. At the break of dawn, with great determination, she begins decorating the egg and transforms it in a pysanka. Not only will she surprise her Mama with her special gift, but Mama has a surprise for Dzvinya. This precious and richly illustrated picture book depicts the age-old pysanky traditions practiced by Ukrainian people throughout the world. The story also offers readers an opportunity to experience a child's deep love for her Mama.
