Although federal and state law allows employers to consider felony and misdemeanor convictions that are related to the job that you may be seeking, the employer must consider multiple factors before making a decision. Employers should consider how much time has passed since the crime, how serious it is, and whether it is related to the job. Therefore, employers should not automatically refuse to hire you due to a criminal record, unless they are prohibited from doing so because of a specific law. Finally! Getting jobs with a criminal record just got easier! This book is a step-by-step guide that can teach any ex-offender or felon how to get a job.
