The final book of the Bible, Revelation prophesies the ultimate judgement of mankind in a series of allegorical visions, grisly images and numerological predictions. According to these, empires will fall, the "Beast" will be destroyed and Christ will rule a new Jerusalem. With an introduction by Will Self. Veteran pastor James C. Howell skillfully unpacks one of the most powerful verses in the Old Testament, Micah 6:8: "What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?" Howell illuminates the original context in which this verse was written, while demonstrating how it can still guide us in our lives today. A Leader's Guide is also included in this book, making it a wonderful resource for both group and individual use. And it is truth you can share easily with others, individually or in small groups. Pilgrim Journeys: The Lord's Prayer takes you on a 40-day journey through the prayer Jesus taught his followers -- one which continues to shape the lives of Christians across the world. Each day provides you with a short Bible reflection, an invitation to pray and a suggestion for responding to the vision of the Lord's Prayer itself. The Pilgrim Journeys booklets are ideal daily companions for anyone seeking to grow in the Christian faith. They are suitable for those preparing for baptism or confirmation -- including those using the Pilgrim discipleship course -- but can be used by anyone at any stage of their Christian journey. Book 2 in a 4-book series which teaches and explains with exhaustive scripture references the Gospel of Universal Reconciliation -- that Jesus Christ is the Saviour of all men -- not some men, but ALL men! "... God was in Christ, reconciling the world [everyone] unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation." 2 Corinthians 5:19. This book helps Christians understand the uniqueness of their temples and know that they are peculiar people of God that receive peculiar favors. ""This Is the Word of the Lord" addresses the formation of the biblical canon, the debates as to what materials did and did not make the final cut, and the implications for that process in understanding various theories of biblical authority and inspiration"-- Saturday or Sunday. Which day is the true Sabbath, the day that God set aside at Creation to worship Him? Does it matter which day we worship on? Does God require us to worship on a certain day, or is He content that we are simply worshipping Him? Many Christians have questions regarding the Lord's day, and fortunately, the Bible has the answers. The Truth Behind the Lord's Day puts aside the opinions of man and turns to the Bible for guidance on this important subject. The book presents a thorough Bible study about the Sabbath, looking at the Old and New Testament to discover its origin and its place in history before and after Jesus' death. In addition to examining the Bible, the book presents a historical overview of the early Christian church and the practices of the apostles regarding Sabbath observance. In-depth information about the history of Saturday and Sunday worship guides readers toward a clearer understanding of the biblical Sabbath, which was designed by God for mankind. Join Pedro Prestol on this exciting theological journey through the Bible and early church history. Discover for yourself the true Sabbath according to the Bible and God's call for all Christians to worship Him on His appointed day. Pedro has studied and continues to study the Bible since he was a child. It is his desire to share the knowledge he has obtained from the study of the scriptures, as many churches today do not teach the truths found therein and instead teach doctrines of man. Today, Pedro is fulfilling the Bible Prophecy of the Three Angel's Message "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people..." (Rev. 14:12) Jo-Jo the Lamb is the star character in this Christian book series that teaches children bible verses. In every book Jo-Jo shares the truth of Jesus Christ with his audience as he overcomes obstacles through the power of God's Word! Luther's Small Catechism is one of the most popular summaries of the Christian faith. For those growing in the faith, this daily devotional edition of the catechism with explanation offers reflection questions, Bible passages, and prayers of the Bible. Each day encourages readers to examine the faith and learn to live it. Reading follow the traditional order of Luther's Small Catechism and the church-year calendar. The book moves easily from the classroom to a special gift shelf at home. Start drawing closer to God and your faith with The Lord Will Answer. How can creatures made from dust become members of God's household "forever"? In this New Studies in Biblical Theology volume, Michael Morales explores the narrative context, literary structure and theology of Leviticus, following its dramatic movement from the tabernacle to the temple--and from the earthly to the heavenly Mount Zion in the New Testament. How did the books of the Bible come to be recognized as Holy Scripture? After nearly nineteen centuries the canon of Scripture remains an issue of debate. Adept in both Old and New Testament studies, F. F. Bruce brings the wisdom of a lifetime of reflection and biblical interpretation to bear in addressing the criteria of canonicity, the canon within the canon, and canonical criticism. Singing the Lord's Song in a New Land is one of the first books to address ministry in Korean American contexts and the first from the highly regarded Valparaiso Project to explore how faith practices work differently in a racial ethnic community. The groundbreaking work identifies eight key practices of the Korean American culture: keeping the Sabbath, singing, fervent prayer, resourcing the life cycle, bearing wisdom, living as an oppressed minority, fasting, and nurturing. The only true and unedited telling of the life of Christ--his life and times, in historical context, but not lacking the psychology behind his physical being and spirit. Unlike other books seeking to strip Jesus' story to reveal only the human being, Romano Guardini's The Lord gives the complete story of Jesus Christ--as man, Holy Ghost, and Creator. Pope Benedict XVI lauds Guardini's work as providing a full understanding of the Son of God, away from the prejudice that rationality engenders. Put long-held myths aside and discover the entire truth about God's only begotten Son. The good that God does--and that God calls us to do--is anchored in the fullness of good that God is. In this SCDS volume, Christopher R. J. Holmes explores the divine attribute of God's goodness by offering a theological interpretation of the Psalter and engaging with the church's rich theological tradition, especially Augustine and Aquinas. Serving the Lord is something that is best begun in His immediate presence. When a person has served Him in His immediate presence and satisfied His heart, He may send such a one to go and serve on His behalf. Serving the Lord in His immediate presence consists essentially in worshipping Him. Of the leaders of the church in Antioch it was said, "While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, 'Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.' Then after fasting and praying, they laid their hands on them and sent them off" (Acts 13:2-3). Barnabas and Saul were sent out to serve from the presence of the Lord to the work to which God had called them. They were ministering in His presence when He sent them away to minister on His behalf. All service of the Lord ought to begin that way. Serving the Lord is invariably tied to resurrection life. No one can truly serve the Lord without that He, the Lord of all glory, has taken the initiative to bring that one into His service. This is so because those who serve Him must know death with Christ and resurrection with Him. Service is the flow of the life of God, and without resurrection life, there can be no flow. People can do many things in the Lord's name, but only that which flows from life will last, and to have the flow of life there must, first of all, be death. A person will minister in proportion to the extent to which he has died and risen with Christ. Those who spare themselves the hard demands of the cross will find that they have also spared themselves the ministry of life. The extent to which a person surrenders himself to death to the world and the flesh, is the extent to which that one will know resurrection life and resurrection ministry. There can be a work in might and power that is not fully of the Holy Spirit.

Samson ministered in power, although he was out of vital fellowship with the Holy God. God demands holiness from all who would serve Him to His satisfaction. Finally, we want to say that Christian work is acceptable in His sight and satisfies His heart only to the extent to which it is in harmony with His will and under His direction. Every work that is outside His will and direction is not only useless; it is an abomination to Him. Too many believers today are doing nothing for the Lord. They are shy and withdrawn and lack boldness and a clear sense of direction. Where are those who would dare to step out at His command and take entire villages, towns, provinces, nations, and continents for Him? Where are those who would seek great things for Him? My prayer is that the Lord of the harvest should use these messages to raise servants and slaves unto His glorious Son, and that such will start in His presence and, as He directs, end in the uttermost parts of the world. Lord Jesus, ignore the weaknesses and shortcomings both of these messages and of the human messenger, and use them, Lord, for Your glory. Amen. The Lords Prayer is the revelation of the proper pattern of prayer life in the body of Christ. In the Lords Prayer, Jesus revealed the Bibles mysteries and heavenly treasures. "The Message of the Lords Prayer" is Gods calling and revelation of salvation and recovery for all who hear the voice of God. (Practical Life) A collection of essays honoring the biblical scholar Ben C. Ollenburger on the topic of the Bible and creation, the subject of much of Ollenburger's scholarly career. "I have been blessed to know Rob Parks not only as a brother in the Lord, but also as a dear friend. In The Balance Is the Lord's, Rob shares an encouraging word to the body of Christ to draw us into a deeper more intimate fellowship with the Lord. Rob encourages believers and clearly lays out a plan to live a balanced life in Christ to reflect the Lord to a lost and hurting world. He challenges us in the modern Western church to evaluate our value system within the church. Is it our large sanctuaries, big budgets, and professional staff that we value most or our personal relationship with Jesus Christ? In chapter two, he discusses how we as believers can handle the difficulties we face in life with a proper, Christ-centered perspective. I have personally observed Rob live this out in his life while walking through the loss of his dear wife, Vicky, with integrity and a steadfastness that can only come from the Lord. Rob not only teaches with wisdom and depth but from the heart through his personal experiences with the Lord. Read The Balance Is the Lord's, and it will bring you to a more solid and balanced walk in Christ, which is greatly needed in these desperate and uncertain times we are living in." —Robert Lowe Robert is married to Lisa, and they have five children. He has served the body of Christ and the church in various volunteer and leadership roles since high school. He is the Internet marketing director for an RV dealership and serves as a lay elder at The Springs Church, in Colorado Springs, Colorado. "Good reminder to keep God first in everything we do, the second chapter stuck out to me about stewardship of our time and committing each day to God. We get so caught up in today's business that we put God on the back burner." —Dave Fisher Dave is a house church leader with Springs Church in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and owns his own business, The Shed Yard, small storage sheds. In the rush and busyness of everyday life, it is good to slow down and spend time in God's Word. Bless the Lord, O My Soul provides that breathing space, that safe haven of peace and tranquility that can only be found in God's presence. Each day's Scripture portion from the Psalms can be read in a few minutes and reflected on at leisure. Color the illustrated verses and reflect on the psalmists' words. Contains rose-gold edges, foiled cover. 365 readings, 52 illustrations and 428 pages. This issue of The Ministry contains a complete record of the nine messages given during the 2005 International Training for Elders and Responsible Ones in Moscow, Russia, in October 2005. The general subject of the training was the vision of the Lord's recovery and its application. The burden for these messages can be summarized in the following four statements: 1) the true vine--Christ the Son with the believers in the Son as the branches--is the organism of the Triune God in the Son for His multiplication, spreading, and glorification in the divine life; 2) we must stay on the way of life, the line of life, in the maintenance of life by enjoying Christ as the tree of life in the flow of life for God's building in life by our growth in life; 3) the kingdom of God is constituted with God's life as the realm of the divine life for His ruling, in which He reigns by His life and expresses Himself as the Divine Trinity in the divine life; and 4) the intrinsic significance of the golden lampstand is the highest peak of the divine revelation, the subjective experience of the golden lampstand is the God-man living, and the organic maintenance of the golden lampstand is Christ's shepherding in His heavenly ministry. We also include a report concerning the Lord's move in Ghana and Nigeria, West Africa. Defining prayer simply as "calling on the name of the Lord," Millar follows the contours of the Bible's teaching on prayer. In this New Studies in Biblical Theology volume, he shows how prayer is intimately linked with the gospel and how it is primarily to be understood as asking God to deliver on his promises. This year's Sperry Symposium discusses ascending into the Lord's mountain within the context of theophany, ancient temple worship, sacred space, sacrifice, offerings, and hymns and songs in the text of the Old Testament and the Book of Mormon. FEEL BROKEN? Joyce Elliott has ministered at the Caring and Sharing Church, a nursing home ministry, for 27 years - all volunteer! She and her husband, Norman, and their two Shih Tzu Grandbabies, Natalie and Millie, visit the residents in the rest home almost daily. Joyce's love and dedication is proven in hours of love and service. Joyce is an avid runner (marathons), bicycler (across United States and Thailand, Cambodia, Viet Nam and Laos), traveler (some 65 countries). She has a deep love for Israel where she has led tours. Joyce and Norman enjoy mission trips to Africa, India, Haiti, and Old Mexico. Joyce has a heart for hurting people and writes to bring hope and encouragement. This book could be used as a daily devotional. The nicest thing ever said about me was by my two and a half year old Granddaughter. She was with her Mother visiting a friend and she spoke up and said, "My Grandma in Falls City loves Jesus!"That's who I am!Thank you, Laura Grace, for that recommendation. Jesus Saves - even on the job In October of 1981, the National Training Center at Ft. Irwin, Ca. was opened as a training facility for US Army units. The work force was civilian, government contract employees. This work force was involved in, among other evil and detestable practices, drug use, alcohol use and sex while on the job. It was a playground for Satan and his followers. This is the last place anyone would expect to hear anything about God. But, God soon began a work that would touch the hearts and lives of the extremely Godless people in this place. God turned the Track and Wheel Shops at Ft. Irwin into a mission field. Starting with one man (not the author), God began a revival in the work place that saw many get saved and go on to various ministries and the mission field. This movement eventually grew into a weekly organized Bible Study that is still thriving and seeing lives changed. This book tells the true story of how Jesus came into this place of work and saved people from their despicable, evil lifestyles of sin. Although this story is told from the experience of one person, it could be told multiple times by a number of people with different experiences and testimonies. The accounts of the work which God did there over the years would fill volumes and would contain endless testimonies of how the Lord worked in the lives of all those involved or those whose lives were touched by this work. When I arrived at Ft. Irwin in July, 1982, I was a drunk who neglected my family and only cared for my own evil desires. By the end of 1984 I was saved and living free from alcohol and was not only walking with Jesus but on my way to active ministry work at the job site and in the Church. There are no exaggerations in this book, only the truth of what Jesus did in the lives of me and those around me and beyond. It is a testimony to what the Lord can do if we are open to His work in our lives. Do you take Jesus to work with you? All too often, Christians leave Jesus at home when they go to work. An undercover Christian is unable to reach anyone for Jesus. We need to be ambassadors for Jesus and take the gospel message to the work site and watch as the Lord saves souls. That is what happened at Ft. Irwin, in the Track and Wheel Shops. We were all truly amazed at the work He was able to do simply because we were obedient to His calling. This work of God, which exists among the evil lifestyles of this workforce, truly stands out like a rose in the desert. Take Jesus to work, you will be amazed at His good work habits. Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery began her walk with Christ Jesus at the early age of seven in 1968, at the Lighthouse Baptist Church. Where the Rev. Dr. Jerry D. Goodloe is the Founder and Pastor. While there she was trained in the foundational truth of God's Holy Word. Some of the ministry assignments in which she worked were the following: church announcement clerk, assistant Sunday school teacher, vacation Bible school teacher, president of the Angelic Choir, secretary of the Inspirational Choir, a lead psalmists in the Evangelical Concert Recording Choir, and an Armour bearer for the late Rev. Mother Effie Sumpter. On the Project entitled "Tell It to Jesus," Dr. Cheri A. Montgomery recorded "Guide Me Oh Thou Great Jehovah". In the late 1980's Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery accepted the call of God on her life and was ordained as an Evangelist by Bishop Aaron Holmes of the New St. Mark Ministries. During the early 1990's God called Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery to Pastor the God's Grace Christian Church on Sept. she was ordained by Apostle Paul Anthony of the Gift Ministries Gary, Indiana/West Ghana, Africa. Also, in 1991's, Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery was called out as a Prophetess of God by Bishop Bernard E. Jordan Chicago School of the Prophets. In 1996, Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery was licensed as a Prophetess of God by Bishop Bill Harmon of the Christian International Network of Churches (CINC). Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery attended Taylor Business College, Logos Ministerial Bible College, Ashworth College, Johnnie Coleman Institute, and Midwest Theological Institute graduating and receiving a Doctoral Degree in Pastoral Counseling in 2006. Dr. Cherli A. Montgomery has worked for the United States Postal Service since August 3, 1985 through the present. Learn to Pray with the Master If you could ask the first disciples, "What was the Savior's secret to living in alignment with the Father's will and with power to face life's challenges," they would have answered with one word, "Prayer!" As we learn to talk with the Father, we grow strong in faith and obedience. The Lord's Prayer is much more than a collection of words to be recited from memory. It is a Jesus-given springboard to launch us into the refreshing waters of God's wisdom and strength. When we learn to pray with Jesus, we become like him. Will you dare to echo the plea of the first disciples, "Teach us to pray"? This book is about following Christ. My earlier book, Come to Me, Why Come to the Lord, explained the importance of coming to the Lord. But coming is only a first step. We need to follow, as Jesus commanded us to do—both as believers and as examples to others to become believers. It is in the believing that we are empowered by Christ to "overcome" the toils of this world and become heirs to his. And this is the Lord's gift to us: that in following him, all things become possible, even seeing past our own daily problems to the kingdom that he prepared for us "from the foundation of the world." God feeds his people in the most personal and intimate way. When we receive the Eucharist, we are being fed by God and changed in mind and heart by this most wondrous gift. Fed by the Lord provides at-home scriptural formation for children preparing for First Communion. This resource, written for the adults who guide them, nourishes relationships between children and parents, as well as the Lord who feeds them. Fed by the Lord focuses on twelve stories of God feeding his people. By studying together the actions of God in Scripture adults can prepare children to connect with the Word of God—Jesus Christ—who reveals himself through this biblical journey and comes to us personally in the Eucharist. Subtle is the Lord is widely recognized as the definitive scientific biography of Albert Einstein. The late Abraham Pais was a distinguished physicist turned historian who knew Einstein both professionally and personally in the last years of his life. His biography combines a profound understanding of Einstein's work with personal recollections from their years of acquaintance, illuminating the man through the development of his scientific thought. Pais examines the formulation of Einstein's theories of relativity, his work on Brownian motion, and his response to quantum theory with authority and precision. The profound transformation Einstein's ideas effected on the physics of the turn of the century is here laid out for the serious reader. Pais also fills many gaps in what we know of Einstein's life - his interest in philosophy, his concern with Jewish destiny, and his opinions of great figures from Newton to Freud. This remarkable volume, written by a physicist who mingled in Einstein's scientific circle, forms a timeless and classic biography of the towering figure of twentieth-century science. The NIV is the world's best-selling modern translation, with over 150 million copies in print since its first full publication in 1978. This highly accurate and smooth-reading version of the Bible in modern English has the largest library of printed and electronic support material of any modern translation. Regular spiritual reading is essential for anyone who truly seeks an intimate relationship with God. Wilfrid Stinissen won an international following with his books on prayer, sacred Scripture, and spiritual direction, wrote this collection of daily meditations to promote inner recollection and attention to the love of God. These meditations will draw readers closer to the heart of God and reveal the spiritual vision of one of today's most profound Christian writers and thinkers. Living on Solid Ground Most couples struggle at some point in their relationship with hard questions of marriage and family life, such as, what is God's primary purpose for marriage? What does it mean for a man to be the head of a home? Is divorce ever acceptable? How do we raise children who will love God? What does God have to say about the way we communicate, or about sexual intimacy? Authors Steve and Dee Brestin have wrestled with these questions in their own marriage and have found that God's Word is the only reliable blue-print for marriage and family life. This study will guide you through the encouragement that the Bible gives for those relationships. Jesus told us the storms will come and batter our homes, but if we obey him, our house will stand firm. The bestselling guide to the healing wisdom of the Twenty-Third Psalm—from the beloved author of When Bad Things Happen to Good People. "A book worthy of attention from people of all faiths." —The Dallas Morning News Rabbi Harold Kushner has found that the simple, beautiful verses of perhaps the most memorable and cherished chapter of the Bible—full of honesty and optimism—have an almost magical power to comfort and calm—and to change your life. The psalm does not pretend that life is ever easy, but it offers a masterful guide to living in the world with faith and courage. Drawing on over forty years of his own thinking, on other biblical scholars, and on history, Kushner gracefully demonstrates how this sustaining work can help us cope with every aspect of life, from mundane jealousies to the death of a loved one to unimaginable tragedies of global proportions. In a malarial outpost in the South American rain forest, two misplaced gringos converge and clash in this novel from the National Book Award-winning author. Martin Quarrier has come to convert the elusive Niaruna Indians to his brand of Christianity. Lewis Moon, a stateless mercenary who is himself part Indian, has come to kill them on the behalf of the local comandante. Out of this struggle Peter Matthiessen creates an electrifying moral thriller—adapted into a movie starring John Lithgow, Kathy Bates, and Tom Waits. A novel of Conradian richness, At Play in the Fields of the Lord explores both the varieties of spiritual experience and the politics of cultural genocide. The Short Studies in Biblical Theology series is designed to help readers see the whole Bible as a unified story—culminating in Jesus. Insightful, accessible, and practical, these books are perfect for readers looking for bite-sized introductions to major subjects in biblical theology. The third volume in the series, Work and Our Labor in the Lord explores how work fits into the framework of the whole Bible—looking at the original creation purpose for work, how it was affected by the fall, and the hope for lasting good offered to all who toil and labor in the Lord today. <http://thebookofthewarsofthelord.weebly.com> In early 2002, Derek Shaver, an unassuming factory worker, was visited by a strange and silent angel of the Lord. This angel, with the help of a young gospel singer armed with the Word of God some weeks before, delivered this emotionally scarred shadow of a one time pint-sized preacher from the evil spirits that haunted him. With the looming darkness of his backsliding into drugs, alcohol and the occult now lifted, the blinding light of God could once again shine down. And shine it did, through the person of the Holy Spirit. Shortly before and soon after the angelic visitation, Derek began to receive revelations in the form of dreams, visions and messages from God that some might say are as peculiar as the man. This is his testimony and written record of the events and those revelations. A testimony of the Deliverance, the Salvation and the Power of Jesus Christ and His Revelation. This is the Book of the Wars of the Lord [Economy Edition] Details - 9 Point Typeface- 5" x 8" Size and Small typeface makes for a more portable and more environmentally friendly paperback.
